MEDIA ALERT

GOODWILL ART EXHIBIT AT SARAH CHUDNOW COMMUNITY SPRING EXHIBITION, APRIL 6-20, HIGHLIGHTS GOODWILL ARTISTS

March 21, 2014...The Sarah Chudnow Community, 10995 N. Market Street in Mequon, will host an exhibition of art by Goodwill's Artistic Enhancement program artists. This spring exhibition is set for Sunday April 6 through April 20, with an opening reception on April 6 from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m.

This art exhibition will showcase and recognize the beauty, creativity and talents of artists with challenges. All art will be for sale and includes paper sculptures, mounted and framed paintings ranging in price from $5 to $250. "Exposure and access to the arts allows an individual with disabilities to grow and experience joy and fulfillment in their lives," said Dorothy Buckhanan Wilson, Sr. Vice President, Mission Services. "We are so appreciative of the Sarah Chudnow Community's support and belief that 'art is for everyone.'"

"Sarah Cudnow Community is delighted to host this exhibit by these talented artists and to partner with Goodwill in showing that challenges are merely opportunities to learn and accomplish in new ways," said Paul J. Schultz, administrator. "Our residents will enjoy living among this extraordinary art exhibit and meeting the artists and visitors; we hope the local community will take advantage of this chance to view new talent!"

About Goodwill
Goodwill's mission is to provide training, employment and supportive services for people with disabilities or disadvantages who seek greater independence. Goodwill Industries employs more people with disabilities (27% of their workforce) than any other private-sector business in the area. In 2013, Goodwill provided services to over 61,000 men and women with disabilities and disadvantages. Visit goodwillsew.com for more information.
