NEIGHBORHOODS

LEARN MORE ABOUT NEIGHBORHOODS AT VISITMILWAUKEE.ORG/NEIGHBORHOODS

A — AVENUES WEST & MARQUETTE
The lively Marquette University campus and diverse residential streets now make up the heart of this neighborhood. You can't miss signs that this was the historic home of Milwaukee's elite, but today you're more likely to run into college students than beer barons on Wisconsin Avenue.

B — BAY VIEW
This hip, eclectic neighborhood is popular with families and young professionals alike. Home to one of the city's most popular bar districts, it's also a hotbed of local art and creativity. Stroll past stores stocked with the work of local artisans and historic buildings decorated with murals.

C — BREWERS HILL
Located on a bluff overlooking the Milwaukee River, Brewers Hill boomed at the turn of the 20th century as a residential area for the laborers who worked in the foundries, tanneries, mills, and breweries that lined the river. You'll still find a brewery on the river here, plus great dining on top of the hill.

D — BRONZEVILLE
In the historic economic and social heart of Milwaukee's African-American community, annual festivals celebrate the strong roots of jazz and the arts in the neighborhood, and the main thoroughfare, Dr. MLK Jr. Drive, is lined with several African American-owned businesses.

E — CLARKE SQUARE
This diverse neighborhood is a gateway to Milwaukee's predominantly Hispanic south side. You'll feel the energy of the community on Cesar Chavez Drive and National Avenue, two main streets in the neighborhood lined with local restaurants, bakeries, and businesses.

F — EAST SIDE
This trendy neighborhood is a melting pot of UW-Milwaukee students, young professionals, and longtime residents. Explore nightlife hubs like Brady Street, the historic home of Milwaukee's Italian population, and North Avenue – these streets are packed with restaurants, indie movie theaters, jazz clubs, and more.

G — EAST TOWN
Set between the Milwaukee River and the shore of Lake Michigan, this downtown neighborhood is home to some of the city's most popular attractions, plus lakefront fun! From beaches to museums, it's easy to spend the day exploring with the family, with plenty of restaurants to enjoy in the evening.

H — HARBOR DISTRICT
It was water that first brought people to the land that would become Milwaukee. Water technology and research takes center stage here at the new UW-Milwaukee School of Freshwater Sciences, but you'll also find popular bars and restaurants around the active harbor.

I — HISTORIC THIRD WARD
Trendy shops and dining abound in this revitalized warehouse district. Industrial spaces are now home to galleries, restaurants, boutique shops, and stylish national retailers. Along the lakefront is Henry Maier Festival Park, home of Summerfest, where the city comes alive every summer for festival after festival.

J — MENOMONEE RIVER VALLEY
Thanks to dedicated locals, this once blighted industrial area has been revitalized with green spaces and sustainable buildings and attractions. The Menomonee River Valley is now home to can't-miss attractions like Potawatomi Hotel & Casino, Miller Park and the Harley-Davidson Museum.

K — RIVERWEST
This diverse, offbeat neighborhood has a DIY sensibility that runs deep. You'll find a little bit of everything here, from funky music venues to intimate restaurants, brewpubs to tiki bars. Riverwest is an eclectic neighborhood with strong communal spirit, home to a community-run bar, a community radio station, and a thriving co-op.

L — WALKER'S POINT
The longtime hub of Milwaukee's gay community, this neighborhood is now also a hotbed of foodie activity with an industrial edge. You'll find some of the city's best LGBTQ bars and nightclubs alongside award-winning restaurants and locally-made artisan food products.

M — WESTOWN
West of the Milwaukee River, you'll find the Wisconsin Center (Milwaukee's convention center) as well as the city's premier sports and entertainment district. Nearby is Old World Third Street, a major hub for nightlife downtown and the historic heart of Milwaukee's German community.
