

Short Speaking Biography

Cindy Thyfault, Founder and CEO

Westar Trade Resources was organized in 1994 as an international financial consulting company headquartered in Dallas, Texas, known for the development, marketing, and funding of start-up & expansion of new sustainable technologies, both domestically and internationally. Westar has assisted companies with obtaining over $900 million in USDA, DOE, and Export-Import Bank government assisted funding programs.

Cindy Thyfault, Founder and CEO, has over 26 years business experience in development, management and funding of bioenergy projects, food and fiber manufacturing, oilseed manufacturing, green building products and residential and industrial construction, both domestically and internationally.

Ms. Thyfault received her bachelor's degree in business with an emphasis on international business and marketing from West Texas A & M University, Canyon, TX. She has served on many regional, national, and international civic organizations and is an accomplished worldwide speaker and author.