Susan D. Krantz specializes in accounting and auditing services with an emphasis on audits of not-for-profit organizations. Susan joined Zinner & Co. in 1990. She has over 25 years of experience in accounting and auditing. Susan serves a diverse client base, which includes clients in manufacturing, distribution, service, HUD assisted multi family housing projects, labor unions and not-for-profit organizations, among others. In addition, she performs audits of employee benefit plans.

Susan is highly knowledgeable about the changing rules, regulations and standards affecting not-for-profit organizations. She is sensitive to her clients' needs for maintaining and enhancing management effectiveness, financial viability, dealing with stringent government regulations, meeting budget constraints, and accomplishing their mission. Her experience with not-for-profit organizations includes arts organizations, civic organizations, community development organizations, organizations for the mentally and physically challenged, private and community foundations, private secondary schools, religious organizations, social clubs and voluntary health and welfare organizations. She has also worked extensively on OMB Circular A-133 and program specific audits.

Susan is responsible for the technical review of all client financial statements to monitor their compliance and is also in charge of the firm's quality control procedures and peer review. Additionally, she serves as the firm's Human Resources Partner.

Susan graduated Summa cum laude from The Ohio State University with a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration degree in accounting. She was a member of Beta Alpha Psi, Beta Gamma Sigma, as well as various other honor societies. Susan was with Price Waterhouse from 1987-1990. She joined Zinner & Co. in 1990 and became a partner in 1999.

Susan is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accounts and the Ohio Society of Certified Public Accountants. She is a past chairperson of the Civic and Not-for-Profit Organizations Committee of the Ohio Society of Certified Public Accountants (OSCPA) – Cleveland Chapter and currently serves on the Advisory Committee for the Not-for-Profit Leadership Symposium. In addition, Susan serves as Chairperson of the Program Capacity Advisory Team of United Way Services of Greater Cleveland and on the Audit Committee of the Jewish Federation of Cleveland. She currently serves on the Board of Trustees of the Epilepsy Association and the Cleveland Rape Crisis Center. She is a graduate of the Civic Leadership Institute of the Cleveland Leadership Center.

Zinner & Co. is a member firm of the National Association of Nonprofit Accountants & Consultants (NPAC), a nationwide association of CPA firms that provide specialized accounting, tax and consulting services to not-for-profit organizations. To be awarded membership in NPAC, firms must demonstrate proficiency and commitment to serving clients in the not-for-profit industry. As an active member, Susan serves on the Executive Committee of NPAC.
