Twenty Years of Experience

Over this period, we have developed best practices for fraud management, and have longstanding relationships with schemes and best-of-breed fraud partners.

Billions of Transactions

Our extensive negative databases and relevant intelligence collected from merchants like you gives us insight on trends, threats and opportunities.

Global Presence

Our fraud consultants on four continents are well equipped to help you deal with regional fraud trends, and understand what is needed to maximize your revenues whilst proactively managing your fraud performance.

Make GlobalCollect an extension of your Fraud Department
