When it comes to understanding your individual insurance needs, your broker is the specialist you trust to keep you safe. And when it comes to understanding the needs of classic car owners, Hagerty is the company your broker trusts to protect and support you.

At Hagerty, we are THE specialists when it comes to your vintage vehicle. That means we know what it takes to insure your classic, and we have resources to help you with everything else you do with it – driving, maintaining, buying and selling, storing, moving, restoring and more.

We're a family-owned business that prides itself on meeting your individual needs. With Hagerty and your trusted insurance broker working for you, you get the coverage you need, with the exceptional service you and your car deserve.

Special cars deserve special coverage.

What's a collector car?

In general, we provide coverage for vehicles that are*:

- Appreciating or holding steady in value
- In good condition or under restoration
- Kept in a secure, enclosed storage facility
- Not used for daily or backup transportation

Why Hagerty?

- Lower premiums than standard insurance
- Coverage for the way you use your collector car
- Coverage that accounts for your car's value
- You choose your own repair shop
- In most cases, Hagerty doesn't require an appraisal
- Multi-car discounts – more cars mean bigger savings

Enjoy your car

If you're worried that specialty insurance means never driving your classic vehicle, don't. We believe great cars were made to be enjoyed, so our policy allows limited pleasure use with no fixed kilometre limits.

* All coverages not available in all provinces. This is only a general description of coverage. Coverage is subject to policy provisions, exclusions and endorsements.

Nobody else does this stuff.

We know values...

From the Hagerty Price Guide to the most recent auction info to the more than 700,000 cars already on our books, no other company has its finger on the pulse of classic car values like Hagerty. The market's most trusted experts live and work right here; each year, we get quoted in more than 150 media outlets. When The New York Times or CNN needs a quote about collector cars, they come to us to shed light on their story – so you can be sure, when it comes to your car, nobody understands its value better than we do.

...and we guarantee them

Hagerty not only understands what your car is worth, we guarantee you will be paid its full value in the case of a covered total loss. With our Agreed Value coverage, we start by agreeing with you on your car's insured value, then our policy guarantees that value, with no depreciation.

Unparalleled hobby support

At Hagerty, we support the classic car community any way we can. From our own youth programs to our support of the Collectors Foundation and the Historic Vehicle Association to Hagerty magazine, we're fully dedicated to advocating for, preserving and protecting the classic car hobby.

Protection for all occasions

Whether you own one car or one hundred, are restoring a vehicle or travel with your car, we can cover you. And for extra peace of mind, check out the Hagerty Plus program – the only emergency roadside assistance plan geared exclusively toward classic cars, with 24-hour guaranteed flatbed recovery and unlimited service calls throughout Canada and the United States.
