

Science Club

Ages: 5-18
Boys and Girls

Club members will participate in age appropriate and safe science experiments. Participants will learn how to conduct experiments, and to follow the scientific method as they perform the experiments. The coordinator plays an active role in the experiment, but gets all participants involved as much as safely possible.