

SANTA FE SPRINGS

The Santa Fe Springs facility operates the best-rated chemical building in Southern California. It serves as a distribution point for customers in the Los Angeles region.

13530 Rosecrans Ave.
Santa Fe Springs, CA 90670
Phone: (562) 404-9996
Fax: (562) 921-7037

Year built:	1975
Square feet:	219,300
Ceiling height:	30 ft - 32 ft
Dock doors:	29 dock doors / 5 rail doors / 1 ramp / 1 drive in door
Sprinkler system:	Wet systems (.28 GPM/per 2,000 SF)
Security:	ADT
Temperature ranges:	Ambient lighting with three temperature cooled rooms providing storage for chemicals with strict temperature range requirements
Hours of operation:	7:00 am to 6:30 pm
Order cutoff time:	Noon

Location details:

Located in LA county just minutes away from interstate I-5.

Products handled:

Weber's Santa Fe Springs DC specializes in handling, storing and distributing flammable liquids, corrosives, oxidizers and poisons. Our highly experienced team of hazardous materials professionals work with customers to maintain safe, compliant distribution operations.

Value-added services:

Training. Compliance with local, state and federal regulations on hazmat storage. Compliance with DOT shipping regulations. MSDS training. Detailed reporting.

Other facility details:

The local fire department performs training twice a year in our 9.25 acre facility. CFATS and C-TPAT compliant. Rated a Tier 2 Facility by Homeland Security.