

AFFORDABLE
LANGUAGE SERVICES
TRANSLATING. INTERPRETING. TEACHING.

Our mission is to have the highest quality and best-trained interpreters for our clients and patients.

Presents: Ethics for Interpreters; “The Nuts & Bolts and Everything In-Between”

April 25, 2015 - 9:00 AM -12:00 PM

Location: Affordable Language Services
4350 Glendale Milford Rd, Cincinnati, Ohio 45242

This workshop will give an “overview” of ethics for sign language interpreters; application of ethical practices to specific scenarios and opportunities for participants to engage in feedback and discussion.

Educational Objectives:

1. To understand ethics as applied to sign language interpreters
2. To analyze ethics as it applies to interpreting scenarios
3. To engage and discuss with fellow participants, situations that are the “in-between, gray area” for interpreters.

Maryann Barth is a Deaf professional educator, administrator and counselor.

Her educator experience includes: high school teacher, literacy coordinator, curriculum design, assessment design and implementation, program design in k-12, degree design in college and university settings; ASL, Deaf Studies, and Interpreter Training Instructor at college and university settings, workshop and training presenter and certified counselor. ASL teacher/instructor/designer for various curricula and programs for more than 25 years.

Name: _____
 Address: _____
 City/State/Zip: _____
 Home e-mail: _____
 Work e-mail: _____
 Certification: RID Level? ____ NIC Level? ____ NAD Level? ____
 EIPA? Level ____ SCPI /SLPI level? ____ Other? ____

- Sponsored by OCRID
- Possible .3 CEUs
- 24 hour cancellation notification required from participants for full reimbursement.
- Affordable Language Services reserves the right to cancel if registration goals are not met.

Workshop Fees

Early Registration by Apr 18, 2015 $30.00

(50% discount for Interpreters working for Affordable Language Services)

Late or on Site after Apr 18, 2015 $35.00

Make Checks Payable to – Affordable Language Services

Mail to: Affordable Language Services 4350 Glendale Milford Rd, Suite 230, Cincinnati, Ohio 45242