The purchaser of any Property shall be entitled to continue to use the personal information provided to it, and related to the Property purchased, in a manner which is in all material respects identical to the prior use of such information by the Proposal Debtors, and shall return all other personal information to the Receiver, or ensure that all other personal information is destroyed.

LIMITATION ON ENVIRONMENTAL LIABILITIES

16. THIS COURT ORDERS that nothing herein contained shall require the Receiver to occupy or to take control, care, charge, possession or management (separately and/or collectively, "Possession") of any of the Property that might be environmentally contaminated, might be a pollutant or a contaminant, or might cause or contribute to a spill, discharge, release or deposit of a substance contrary to any federal, provincial or other law respecting the protection, conservation, enhancement, remediation or rehabilitation of the environment or relating to the disposal of waste or other contamination including, without limitation, the Canadian Environmental Protection Act, the Ontario Environmental Protection Act, the Ontario Water Resources Act, or the Ontario Occupational Health and Safety Act and regulations thereunder (the "Environmental Legislation"), provided however that nothing herein shall exempt the Receiver from any duty to report or make disclosure imposed by applicable Environmental Legislation. the stay of proceedings to January 26, 2015.

Section 50.4(9) of the BIA permits an extension of a stay if the court is satisfied that (a) the insolvent person has acted in good faith and due diligence;

(b) the insolvent person would likely be able to make a viable proposal if the extension being applied for were granted; and

(c) no creditors would be materially prejudiced by the extension.

Section 50.4(11) of the BIA permits a stay to be terminated if the court is satisfied that the converse of (a), (b) & (c) in section 50.4(9) is the case.

I am satisfied that the NOI proceedings should be terminated. The motion brought today by the debtors is audacious but hopelessly misconceived.

The debtors have not been acting in good faith. As disclosed in the second report of

The interim receiver, Gede Maine has issued cheques in excess of available cash, it has not paid prol filing some deductions and it has made disbursements without prior approval of the Personal Trustee and the interim receiver, contrary to the protocol established by the interim receiver. The debtors have not attempted to explain why this occurred.

The debtors are not likely to be able to make a viable proposal. They recently disclosed to Casmost personnel that they have suffered large losses since 2010, have not filed proper tax returns and have lied to the tax authorities by filing false returns. They now say that they realize that one of the Gede family should be involved in running the business and that a new operator should be found. Raising money in their circumstances seems hopeless in any reasonable ~~time~~ foreseeable time.

Cawmet and Powell hold 1st, 2nd & 3rd mortgage securities on the lands used by the Cape Marine business. ~~They~~ Cawmet has made it clear that it is not prepared to support any proposal of the debtors and Powell supports Cawmet. ~~As in~~ In some circumstances assertions of non-support for a future proposal or arrangement are taken with a grain of salt as negotiating positions. In light of the evidence disclosed, I do not so take the positions of Cawmet and Powell. They have legitimate reasons to want to see the properties now taken care of under the auspices of a receiver.

~~As proposed trustee~~. Without the support of Cawmet and Powell, any proposal would not bind them and they would be free to deal with their securities.

The proposal ~~has~~ has acknowledged in its third report that if Cawmet and Powell maintain their positions, the contemplated proposal in the affair of M. Gato is unlikely to succeed.

Splitting the Keswick Marine property and having the debtors retain the part of the Marine with the largest number of boat slips + other common facilities would clearly diminish Gowan's security. The notion that the debtors could operate any marine business is fanciful and would be to the detriment of all stakeholders, including employees. The Keswick Marine business should be maintained as a whole.

The bids for appointing a receiver are well settled. See Bank of Montreal v. Carnival bearing Ltd, 2011, 74 C.B.R. (5th) 300. Gowan is not entitled to the appointment of a receiver as requested.

Mr. Wetmore raises an issue on behalf of 2124915 Ontario Inc. re the Laguna City Marine and ~~other~~ takes the position that it should be carved out of the properties under receivership.

I think the receiver, Counsel and the #d co should have a little time to consider this and perhaps some agreement can be reached. If not, the matter may be brought back on.

Mr. Prophet on behalf of Upland's Charitable Foundation and Kowit Investment Ltd opposes the receiver's charge to ranking prior to his clients' 1 million first mortgages. I think a discussion with the receiver and Counsel should also take place on this issue and if agreement cannot be reached, the matter may be brought back on.

The notices of intention to file proposals of the seven debtors are furnished. A. Fisher & Partners Inc is appointed receiver of the assets of the seven debtors without security and is appointed trustee in bankruptcy of the seven debtors.

16. THIS COURT ORDERS that nothing herein contained shall require the Receiver to occupy or to take control, care, charge, possession or management (separately and/or collectively, "Possession") of any of the Property that might be environmentally contaminated, might be a pollutant or a contaminant, or might cause or contribute to a spill, discharge, release or deposit of a substance contrary to any federal, provincial or other law respecting the protection, conservation, enhancement, remediation or rehabilitation of the environment or relating to the disposal of waste or other contamination including, without limitation, the Canadian Environmental Protection Act, the Ontario Environmental Protection Act, the Ontario Water Resources Act, or the Ontario Occupational Health and Safety Act and regulations thereunder (the "Environmental Legislation"), provided however that nothing herein shall exempt the Receiver from any duty to report or make disclosure imposed by applicable Environmental Legislation. 17. THIS COURT ORDERS that the Receiver shall incur no liability or obligation as a result of its appointment or the carrying out the provisions of this Order, save and except for any gross negligence or wilful misconduct on its part, or in respect of its obligations under sections 81.4(5) or 81.6(3) of the BIA or under the Wage Earner Protection Program Act. 19. THIS COURT ORDERS that the Receiver and its legal counsel shall pass its accounts from time to time, and for this purpose the accounts of the Receiver and its legal counsel are hereby referred to a judge of the Commercial List of the Ontario Superior Court of Justice.

20. THIS COURT ORDERS that prior to the passing of its accounts, the Receiver shall be at liberty from time to time to apply reasonable amounts, out of the monies in its hands, against its fees and disbursements, including legal fees and disbursements, incurred at the standard rates and charges of the Receiver or its counsel, and such amounts shall constitute advances against its remuneration and disbursements when and as approved by this Court.

The whole of the Property shall be and is hereby charged by way of a fixed and specific charge (the "Receiver's Borrowings Charge") as security for the payment of the monies borrowed, together with interest and charges thereon, in priority to all security interests, trusts, liens, charges and encumbrances, statutory or otherwise, in favour of any Person, but subordinate in priority to the Receiver's Charge and the charges as set out in sections 14.06(7), 81.4(4), and 81.6(2) of the BIA.

22. THIS COURT ORDERS that neither the Receiver's Borrowings Charge nor any other security granted by the Receiver in connection with its borrowings under this Order shall be enforced without leave of this Court.

23. THIS COURT ORDERS that the Receiver is at liberty and authorized to issue certificates substantially in the form annexed as Schedule "A" hereto (the "Receiver's Certificates") for any amount borrowed by it pursuant to this Order.

24. THIS COURT ORDERS that the monies from time to time borrowed by the Receiver pursuant to this Order or any further order of this Court and any and all Receiver's Certificates evidencing the same or any part thereof shall rank on a pari passu basis, unless otherwise agreed to by the holders of any prior issued Receiver's Certificates.

SECOND REPORT OF THE INTERIM RECEIVER

December 3, 2014

A. Farber & Partners Inc., in its capacity as the Court-Appointed Interim Receiver (the “Interim Receiver”) of Crate Marine Sales Limited, F.S. Crate & Sons Limited, 1330732 Ontario Limited, 1323559 Ontario Limited and 1282648 Ontario Limited (collectively the “Companies”) hereby reports to the Court as follows:

INTRODUCTION

1. On November 14, 2014, the Companies each filed a Notice of Intention to Make a Proposal (the “NOI’s”) pursuant to the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (Canada) (the “BIA”), and named Dodick Landau Inc. as proposal trustee (“Proposal Trustee”).
2. On November 20, 2014, the currently-known largest secured creditor, Crawmet Corp. (“Crawmet”) filed motion material for a November 21, 2014 hearing seeking to (i) have the NOI’s immediately terminated; (ii) appoint the Interim Receiver as a receiver over the properties, assets and undertakings of the Companies and (iii) to substitute the Interim Receiver to become the bankruptcy trustee of the Companies. At the November 21, 2014 hearing, this motion was adjourned to December 1, 2014.

3. At the November 21, 2014 hearing, the Interim Receiver was appointed Interim Receiver pursuant to section 47.1 of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (the “BIA”) of the Companies to preserve and protect the assets, undertakings and properties of the Companies acquired for, or used in relation to the business carried on by the Companies, including all proceeds thereof (the “Property”) pursuant to the November 21, 2014 Order of the Honourable Mr. Justice Penny (the “Appointment Order”). A copy of the Appointment Order is attached at Appendix “A”. A copy of the endorsement dated November 21, 2014 is attached at Appendix “B”.

4. At the December 1, 2014 hearing, the powers of the Interim Receiver were expanded and the Court made certain directions regarding the business and financial affairs of the Companies pending the next hearing on December 9, 2014. A copy of the endorsement of Mr. Justice Penny of that date, along with an unofficial typed transcription prepared by counsel for the Interim Receiver, is attached at Appendix “C”.

PURPOSE OF THIS REPORT

5. This is the second report of the Interim Receiver (the “Second Report”). Its purpose is to report to the Court and the stakeholders of the Companies regarding certain facts and matters recently discovered by the Interim Receiver, which the Interim Receiver believes are of an urgent and material nature such that they require immediate disclosure in advance of the scheduled hearing on December 9, 2014.

LIMITATION OF REVIEW

6. The Interim Receiver has relied upon the financial records and information provided by the Companies, as well as other information supplied by management, appraisers, accountants, auditors and advisors, and has not independently reviewed or verified such information. The Interim Receiver has prepared this Second Report for the sole use of the Court and of the other stakeholders in these proceedings.

A) FACTS AND MATTERS RECENTLY DISCOVERED BY THE INTERIM RECEIVER

Disbursements by the Companies on November 28, 2014

7. The Interim Receiver called the Companies on the afternoon of November 28, 2014 enquiring if any cheques needed approval as the Interim Receiver understood that a payroll was expected to be released. The Interim Receiver was advised that payroll cheques had been approved by the Proposal Trustee and were already released. The Interim Receiver was advised that its pre-approval was inadvertently missed and that a list of cheques released on November 28, 2014 would be emailed to the Interim Receiver.

8. The list of cheques released on November 28 was only provided after 4:00pm on December 1, 2014 after follow up requests made by the Interim Receiver. The Interim Receiver has not been provided with any explanation for the delay in providing that information. The information provided revealed that the Companies had issued many payments on November 28, 2014. A listing of the payments made is attached as Appendix “D”.

9. The disbursements made in Appendix “D” were not approved by the Interim Receiver. This departed from the procedures established since the appointment of the Interim Receiver pursuant to which all other disbursements that the Companies had wished to make had been presented to the Interim Receiver for approval and, where approval had not been granted, the disbursements in question had not been made (confirmed by subsequent review of the banking activity as described in the First Report). An exception to this procedure was the disbursement to Dickinson Wright LLP made on November 27, 2014 and described in more detail in the First Report.

10. The Interim Receiver has also not been provided with information from the Companies about the degree to which, if any, the payments made on November 28 were in respect of “ordinary living expenses” within the meaning of paragraph 7 of the November 21, 2014 Order (attached as Appendix “A”).

11. The Interim Receiver inquired of the Proposal Trustee, and was advised that the Proposal Trustee had also not approved the disbursements made in Appendix “D”. A copy of the communications with the Proposal Trustee in that regard is attached as Appendix “E”.

Banking Issues Relevant to the Disbursements by the Companies on November 28, 2014

12. The Interim Receiver’s review of the funds available in the Companies’ bank accounts as compared to the total of the disbursements made on November 28, 2014 and also the cheques previously written but which have not yet cleared the Companies’ banks suggests that the Companies have written cheques in a greater amount than the funds on hand. The amount by which the Companies are short for honouring all cheques written was approximately $60,000 on November 28, 2014, comprised as follows:

| - Balance in BMO operating account | $111,000 |
| - Balance in other bank accounts | $27,000 |
| Less: | |
| - November 21 cheques not yet cleared | $33,000 |
| - November 25 cheque requests approved but not yet cleared | $40,000 |
| - November 28 cheques released (w/o approval) | $125,000 |
| Shortfall | $60,000 |

13. The Interim Receiver understands that not all the cheques that have been written have been released and that the Companies were expecting additional receipts in December. The accounting employees of the Companies have acknowledged the shortfall, but the management of the Companies have not, to date, provided details about how this shortfall in funds for cheques already written will be addressed.

14. Inquiries by the Interim Receiver’s counsel to counsel for the Companies have not resulted in a substantive answer. The e-mail exchange on that is attached as Appendix “F”, but no further information or advice has been received from counsel for the Companies either.

15. The funds available for payment of disbursements that the Companies have made, or need to make, is further complicated by the extent of 2015 boat slip rental income that has already been received by the Companies. The Interim Receiver has been advised that $642,251.03 of 2015 slip rental fees for the Keswick facility have already been received, and a copy of the Companies' report on that is attached as Appendix "G". The Companies are presently unable to advise of the amounts of 2015 slip rental income that has been received for the Lagoon City or Willow facilities. The extent to which any of this $642,251.03 relates to payments received post-NOI on November 14, 2014 is not yet known and is under review by the Interim Receiver.

16. Deposits (net of returned items) to the Companies' accounts for December 1 and 2 appear to be approximately $21,000. The Companies have stated that none of these deposits relate to 2015 slip rentals that would not be available for current operations pursuant to the December 1 Endorsement in Appendix "C".

Non-payment of CRA source deductions on payroll

17. The Interim Receiver has also learned late in the day on December 2, 2014 that the Companies have not made two source deduction payments during the NOI period in respect of payroll issued to employees.

18. The Interim Receiver has been advised by the Companies' accounting and controller employees that payroll source deductions are due the week following payments to employees. The Companies have made payments to employees on November 14, 2014 and on November 28, 2014 (some of the disbursements in Appendix "D" were for payroll) for which the applicable source deductions have not been provided for or remitted.

19. The Interim Receiver authorized a disbursement requested by the Companies on November 25, 2014 for payroll source deductions in the amount of $39,320.07. This amount was comprised of conventional source deduction obligations of $35,948.79 plus a further amount of $3,371.28 for Family Responsibility Office garnishments against funds payable to employees. The Interim Receiver has not seen any records to indicate that this payment has in fact been made and this amount has not been presented to the banks for payment.

20. In addition, the Companies estimate that a further $33,818.88 of source deductions will be due this week relating to the payroll released on November 28, 2014; accordingly, based on advice from the Companies' accounting employees, the total post-NOI the outstanding source deduction payments that have arisen after November 14, 2014 are approximately $69,767.

21. In addition to the $60,000 shortfall (described at paragraph 12 above) to cover the cheques already written (one of which is the $39,320.07 for payroll source deductions noted at paragraph 19, above), the Interim Receiver therefore believes that the Companies must also pay a further $33,818.88 of priority source deduction obligations to CRA and there are also no funds at this time to cover those required payments. The same response from the Companies noted in paragraph 13, above, (about whether and if so how the shortfall in funds for cheques already written is to be made up) applies to these unpaid source deductions, and in particular the accounting employees have indicated a desire to pay the source deduction obligations today but acknowledge a lack of funds to do so. As a result the Interim Receiver is unable to conclude that the Companies will be in a position to comply with these obligations before December 9, 2014.

22. The Interim Receiver believes that the non-payment of source deduction obligations post-NOI terminates the stay against CRA in respect of all source deduction arrears, including pre-NOI arrears (which are approximately $220,000 for the Ontario payrolls of the Companies according to the notes to the cash flows prepared by the Proposal Trustee) pursuant to subsection 69(3) of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act. CRA is therefore entitled to exercise all collection powers available to it.

23. As a result of the circumstances described above:

- a) it is unclear how the Companies will be able to fund the payment of necessary expenses for the period ending December 9, 2014; and
- b) there is now a significant priority amount owed to CRA ranking ahead of the interests of existing creditors, which is a deterioration in position since the filing of the NOI.

B) CONCLUSION

24. The Interim Receiver accordingly reports on these matters to the Court and to the stakeholders of the Companies on an urgent basis for such discussion and direction as may be appropriate.

All of which is respectfully submitted this 3rd day of December, 2014.

SUPPLEMENTARY REPORT TO THE
SECOND REPORT OF THE INTERIM RECEIVER

December 4, 2014

A. Farber & Partners Inc., in its capacity as the Court-Appointed Interim Receiver (the “Interim Receiver”) of Crate Marine Sales Limited, F.S. Crate & Sons Limited, 1330732 Ontario Limited, 1323559 Ontario Limited and 1282648 Ontario Limited (collectively the “Companies”) hereby reports to the Court as follows:

PURPOSE OF THIS REPORT

1. All capitalized terms have the meaning given to them in the second report of the Interim Receiver dated December 3, 2014 (the “Second Report”).
2. This report is to supplement the Second Report which the Interim Receiver served and filed earlier today to the Court and the stakeholders of the Companies regarding certain facts and matters recently discovered by the Interim Receiver, which the Interim Receiver believed were of an urgent and material nature such that they required immediate disclosure in advance of the scheduled hearing on December 9, 2014.

3. The Interim Receiver understands that the Court has directed that a hearing take place at 10:00am on Thursday December 4, 2014 in connection with the issues raised by the Second Report and a request by Crawmet to renew its relief sought to, among other things, terminate the NOI proceedings of the Companies.

4. The Interim Receiver has therefore prepared this report to advise the Court and the stakeholders of the Companies about the information that the Interim Receiver has found to date (principally throughout the course of the business day on December 3, 2014) regarding the assets of the Companies.

LIMITATION OF REVIEW

5. The Interim Receiver has relied upon the financial records and information provided by the Companies, as well as other information supplied by management, appraisers, accountants, auditors and advisors, and has not independently reviewed or verified such information. The Interim Receiver has prepared this Second Report for the sole use of the Court and of the other stakeholders in these proceedings.

A) NEW INFORMATION REGARDING THE ASSETS OF THE COMPANIES

6. Although the Interim Receiver's review of the books and records of the Companies is ongoing, the following is the salient information that the Interim Receiver has been able to identify as a result of its review during the business day on December 3, 2014.

2015 boat slip revenue received in 2014

7. The Second Report advised that the Interim Receiver had been told by the Companies that $642,251.03 of boat slip rental revenue that had been invoiced in 2014 for facilities and services to be provided in 2015 had already been received.

8. The Interim Receiver's review of the records of the Companies indicates that only $55,482.37 of that amount was received post-NOI (November 14, 2014).

9. The Companies did not segregate any of the 2015 boat slip revenue received in 2014 prior to the December 1, 2014 Court Endorsement, although it was separately accounted for in the books and records of the Companies. The Interim Receiver's understanding is that all of the $642,251.03 of 2015 boat slip revenue has been used by the Companies for general purposes. As indicated in the Second Report, this amount is solely attributable to the Keswick facilities. The amount of 2015 boat slip revenue for the Lagoon City and Willow facilities is not known, but any such revenue received has not been segregated either and has also been used for general purposes.

Inventory

10. The Interim Receiver has been unable to perform a physical inspection of the boat inventory in the possession of the Companies for the reasons set out in the First Report (pertaining to the shrink-wrapping of most boats such that review without removal is not possible, and removal would require uneconomical re-wrapping).

11. The Interim Receiver has also been unable to check or test the values given on the books and records of the Companies to the boats held in inventory.

12. The Interim Receiver, has, however, been able to check the presence of the items listed in the Companies' records, in reliance on the information provided by the employees of the Companies about which items on the records are in the possession of the Companies.

13. This review has indicated to the Receiver that there are items listed in the inventory that are not present, which therefore means that the book value of the inventory (before any reductions for fair market or realizable value) must be adjusted downwards.

14. The books and records of the Companies state that inventory in the amount of $3,742,698.71 is held. The Interim Receiver's review indicates that $1,600,182.98 of that inventory is not in the possession of the Companies. The reconciliation of the inventory and accompanying book values is set out on the spreadsheet prepared by the Interim Receiver attached as Appendix "A".

15. The Interim Receiver's reconciled value of the inventory held by the Companies is $2,142,515.73 at book value.

Accounts Receivable

16. The Interim Receiver’s review of accounts receivable has been complicated by the fact that the Companies’ listings contain both accounts payable by customers, and also credits payable to customers. The Companies’ records have also not been reconciled against each other or closed out on a monthly basis.

17. The Interim Receiver did receive a further set of data from the Companies in the evening of December 3, 2014 that does permit some analysis.

18. Based on those records, the Companies’ net total of accounts receivable is approximately $889,000.

19. The Companies records appear, however, to understate the accounts receivable by the inclusion of what are really credits owing to customers, which amount to approximately $1,374,000. If those credits are removed, the total of accounts receivable is approximately $2,263,000.

20. In order to get an understanding of the possible collectability of the accounts receivable, the Interim Receiver analysed the data presented by the Companies, which is set out in the chart below.

| Total | 30 days | 60 days | 90 days | 90 + days |
|-----------------|----------------|----------------|----------------|------------------|
| $ 2,263,194.44 | $ 65,199.23 | $ 324,496.50 | $ 186,256.02 | $ 1,687,242.69 |
| % Collectable | 100% | 80% | 50% | 10% |
| $ 586,648.71 | $ 65,199.23 | $ 259,597.20 | $ 93,128.01 | $ 168,724.27 |

21. The Interim Receiver also assumed a declining collectible value based on the age of the accounts receivable, as indicated in the bottom of the above chart. The result of that analysis suggests that the true value of the accounts receivable may be closer to approximately $586,000.

B) CONCLUSION

22. The Interim Receiver's review to date suggests that the value of inventory on the Companies' books and records may be overstated by approximately $1,600,000, that the accounts receivable contain liabilities (credits) owing to customers of $1,374,000, and the actual collectible value of the "true" accounts receivable may be overstated on the Companies' records by approximately $303,000.

All of which is respectfully submitted this 4th day of December, 2014.

Crate & Sons Limited, 1330732 Ontario Limited, 1323559 Ontario Limited and 1282648 Ontario Limited (collectively the “Companies”) hereby reports to the Court as follows:

INTRODUCTION

1. On November 14, 2014, the Companies each filed a Notice of Intention to Make a Proposal (the “NOI’s”) pursuant to the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (Canada) (the “BIA”), and named Dodick Landau Inc. as proposal trustee (“Proposal Trustee”).
2. On November 20, 2014, the currently-known largest secured creditor, Crawmet Corp. (“Crawmet”) filed motion material for a November 21, 2014 hearing seeking to (i) have the NOI’s immediately terminated; (ii) appoint the Interim Receiver as a receiver over the properties, assets and undertakings of the Companies and (iii) to substitute the Interim Receiver to become the bankruptcy trustee of the Companies (the “Crawmet Motion”). At the November 21, 2014 hearing, this motion was adjourned to December 1, 2014.

3. At the November 21, 2014 hearing, the Interim Receiver was appointed Interim Receiver pursuant to section 47.1 of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (the “BIA”) of the Companies to preserve and protect the assets, undertakings and properties of the Companies acquired for, or used in relation to the business carried on by the Companies, including all proceeds thereof (the “Property”) pursuant to the November 21, 2014 Order of the Honourable Mr. Justice Penny (the “Appointment Order”). A copy of the Appointment Order is attached at Appendix “A”. A copy of the endorsement dated November 21, 2014 is attached at Appendix “B”.

4. At the December 1, 2014 hearing, the powers of the Interim Receiver were expanded and the Court made certain directions regarding the business and financial affairs of the Companies pending the next hearing on December 9, 2014. The Crawmet Motion was also adjourned to that date. A copy of the endorsement of Mr. Justice Penny of that date, along with an unofficial typed transcription prepared by counsel for the Interim Receiver, is attached at Appendix “C”.

5. The Interim Receiver served and filed its Second Report and Supplementary Report to the Second Report on December 3 and 4, respectively, regarding certain facts and matters that had been recently discovered by the Interim Receiver, and which the Interim Receiver believed were of an urgent and material nature such that they required immediate disclosure in advance of the scheduled hearing on December 9, 2014. The Proposal Trustee also served and filed its Second Report on similar issues, which it reported constituted material adverse changes.

6. A hearing was held at the request of Crawmet on December 4, 2014 to renew the Crawmet Motion. The Honourable Justice Newbould directed the Interim Receiver to notify all banks holding accounts of Crate Marine Sales Ltd. that no disbursements were to be made without the prior written authorization of the Interim Receiver and further directed that the hearing that had been previously scheduled for December 9 instead proceed on December 8, 2014 before His Honour. A copy of the endorsement of Mr. Justice Newbould of that date, along with an unofficial typed transcription prepared by counsel for the Interim Receiver, is attached at Appendix “D”.

PURPOSE OF THIS REPORT

7. This is the third report of the Interim Receiver (the “Third Report”). Its purpose is to report to the Court and the stakeholders of the Companies regarding certain facts and matters that have come to the attention of the Interim Receiver since the Second Report and Supplementary Report to the Second Report.

LIMITATION OF REVIEW

8. The Interim Receiver has relied upon the financial records and information provided by the Companies, as well as other information supplied by management, appraisers, accountants, auditors and advisors, and has not independently reviewed or verified such information. The Interim Receiver has prepared this Third Report for the sole use of the Court and of the other stakeholders in these proceedings.

A) DISENGAGEMENT OF MANAGEMENT OF THE COMPANIES

9. Following the December 4, 2014 hearing before Mr. Justice Newbould, the Interim Receiver continued its mandate to preserve and protect the Property and to review salient issues for further report to the Court. In particular, on the afternoon of December 4, 2014 the Interim Receiver provided the notifications to the Companies’ banks directed to be given by Mr. Justice Newbould. Such notifications were provided by telephone followed by e-mails and letters sent via e-mail.

10. After that hearing, however, the employees of the Companies appear to have been left without direction of senior management, and in particular by Steven Crate. The employees reported in several instances to the Interim Receiver that Mr. Crate had advised that he was “giving up”, or words to that effect. Steven Crate left the Keswick facility at 9:30am on Friday December 5 and did not return. Lynn Marko and Greg Crate have not been at the facility for several days before that.

11. The Interim Receiver itself has encountered significant difficulty in getting Mr. Crate to respond to inquiries about the Companies, including direction for cheques and payments that the Companies wanted the Interim Receiver to approve and straightforward operational issues such as whether the Companies intend to operate on the weekend of December 6 (such that the Interim Receiver would open and close the premises as described in the First Report).

12. The Interim Receiver has observed that the controller has successfully been able to contact Steven Crate by phone during the periods where he has not responded to the Interim Receiver. She was able to call him and have him discuss with the Interim Receiver a Ford vehicle that had been transferred from the Companies to his wife shortly before or after the NOI filings (the details of which are still under review by the Interim Receiver).

13. The Interim Receiver raised the issue of lack of response from Steven Crate with counsel for the Companies, who stated that Mr. Crate would do so after finishing with motion materials in process, but that did not happen. Mr. Crate has not responded to e-mails or calls from the Interim Receiver after leaving the Keswick facility at 9:30am on Friday December 5, 2014, aside from the one instance when the controller got him on the phone for the Interim Receiver noted above.

14. The Interim Receiver has concerns that the going concern nature of the business and undertakings of the Companies may be in jeopardy as a result of the lack of response and supervision of management.

B) LACK OF MAINTENANCE OF TWO LOCATIONS

15. The Interim Receiver has been advised by its agents, and also by the landlord of the Lagoon City facility, that the propane tanks used for heating at the Lagoon City and Quebec locations are running low such that heat may cease at those locations over the weekend of December 6, 2014.

16. The landlord of the Lagoon City facility has, through its counsel, in particular raised concerns of damage to the building and contents if the temperature drops below freezing, for example by pipes bursting.

17. The Interim Receiver has attempted to raise these issues with management for the Companies, without response.

18. The Interim Receiver has in particular raised the issue of ongoing heating at the Lagoon City facility with Steven and Greg Crate, who the landlord of that facility asserts are the tenant (and who appear to have acknowledged that in letters contained in the landlord's affidavit material, but have otherwise not commented on that allegation in the affidavits of Steven Crate), also without success.

19. The Interim Receiver is accordingly taking steps to ensure that the propane at these locations is kept in adequate supply to ensure that heat stays on until the next hearing on December 8, 2014.

C) YACHT BEING HELD IN PICKERING

20. In the First Report, the Interim Receiver advised the Court regarding a 50' yacht that was on the Companies' inventory list with a book value of $1,178,665, and that was removed from the Keswick facility on the morning of the NOI filing. This yacht was provided to the Companies by Marquis Yachts, and Northpoint Commercial Finance appears to have provided financing of $1,014,445 for this yacht as recorded on the Companies' balance sheet as at November 22, 2014.

21. The First Report also advised that the yacht was in the process of being transported to Florida, which Marquis/Northpoint advised was for purposes of (re)sale to a third party, but at the request of the Interim Receiver the trucking company has held the yacht at its yard in Pickering while discussions took place between the Interim Receiver and counsel for Marquis and Northpoint Commercial Finance, Borden Ladner Gervais LLP ("BLG"), regarding the payment of proceeds of sale of the yacht to the Interim Receiver to be held pending agreement or adjudication as to entitlement to those proceeds.

22. In the course of its preservative duties as mandated by the November 21, 2014 Order, the Interim Receiver is of the view that the yacht should not be released without adequate security for its value or projected sale proceeds.

23. The discussions between the Interim Receiver and BLG that had been ongoing at the time of the First Report have reached an impasse, as Marquis/Northpoint is only willing to provide an unsecured guarantee that the proceeds of the yacht will be paid after the yacht is taken across the border. The Interim Receiver is not prepared to allow removal of the yacht from the jurisdiction without some form of security for its value, which Marquis/Northpoint is not willing to provide.

D) FURTHER REPORTS FROM CUSTOMERS OF THE COMPANIES REGARDING BOAT SALES

24. In its First Report, the Interim Receiver advised of information that had been provided to it by customers of the Companies regarding transactions involving the Companies in the sale of boats on behalf of customers without remitting the proceeds to the boat owner, or sales of boats with financing encumbrances that have not been discharged and that now remain outstanding against the original boat owner (and possibly the boat).

25. The Interim Receiver has not been provided with any explanation by Steven Crate or management of the Companies regarding the information set out in the First Report, whether by affidavit or otherwise, including the boat sales discussed in the preceding paragraph. The Interim Receiver was provided with a small stack of documents by the controller for the Companies that are said to relate to the boat sales, but without explanation or elaboration. The Interim Receiver is reviewing those documents, but without an explanation of the underlying transactions the Interim Receiver has been unable to form a view as to what the documents mean as of the date of this Third Report.

26. Since the First Report, the Interim Receiver has been approached by two further customers of the Companies with further concerns, the details of which are as follows:

- a) Slava Levin sent an e-mail to the Interim Receiver to advise that he sold a 38' Searay boat through the Companies in August/September of 2011 for which the proceeds were converted into a loan. A further loan was made for $172,500, which involved $52,000 still outstanding from the first loan and was stated to be for the financing of Regal boats. Mr. Levin advises that $219,125 is now outstanding despite an extended term and post-dated cheques having been given. It is not presently clear whether Mr. Levin asserts that the loan arrangements with Mr. Crate were entered into voluntarily or not. Mr. Levin's e-mail is attached as Appendix "E". The Interim Receiver has reviewed the records of the Companies and the information found to-date suggests that the 38' Searay that Mr. Levin refers to may be the same boat that was later sold by the Companies on behalf of Rocco Morra and for which he is owed $62,000 as advised by Greg Crate (as set out in more detail in paragraph 42(b) of the First Report).

- b) Bill Labanovich advised that he bought a boat in a transaction brokered by Companies (on behalf of a third party owner) in October, but was asked to provide payment of the $145,000 purchase price through a $103,000 bank draft payable to Crate Marine and a $42,000 payment to "S. Crate". Copies of those bank drafts as received from Mr. Labanovich are attached as Appendix "F". Mr. Labanovich also advises that he has not yet been provided with a bill of sale. The Companies have to date been unable to locate a copy of the sales contract, and the transaction was not recorded as paid for in the accounting system (see printout attached as Appendix "G"). Employees of the Companies advised that Steven Crate became involved in the transaction in addition to existing agents for the purchaser and vendor.

27. The Interim Receiver has not been able to complete an independent review of the Companies' records or with employees of the Companies regarding the advice it received as set out above. The Interim Receiver cannot accordingly verify the accuracy or lack thereof of the information that it has been provided.

E) CONCLUSION

28. The Interim Receiver will request at the hearing on December 8, 2014 that the Second Report, the Supplementary Report to the Second Report, and this Third Report, and the activities of the Interim Receiver and its counsel as described in those reports, be approved.

All of which is respectfully submitted this 7th day of December, 2014.
