The program offers expert instruction in the arts, cooking, business, fashion, college prep, sports and many other popular subjects. You'll have a lot of choices, so you can focus on the areas that interest you most, try new things, or do both. We trend-spot and listen to you. So, our line-up of programming is constantly evolving to bring you what you want. That's why we have been an industry leader for over 35 years. This is your chance to explore new ideas, skills and experiences in a friendly atmosphere of exploration and growth.

“We were impressed with the total experience. This program continues to help Steven build his skills.”
