

Poor Richard's Almanack

...with Modern Translations for the Mail Center Manager

Edited by Mark M. Fallon President & CEO
The Berkshire Company

The Berkshire Company

www.berkshire-company.com

The Berkshire Company

www.berkshire-company.com

"What one relishes, nourishes."

March 1734

The Berkshire Company

www.berkshire-company.com

People are your greatest asset.

- Mail Center employees are:
 - the first contact with internal/external clients.
 - valuable resources for information.
- Mail Center employees must learn to grow. Training is essential.
- It's better to lose employees to other departments than to other companies.

The Berkshire Company

www.berkshire-company.com

"Tho' modesty is a virtue, bashfulness is a vice."

September 1750

The Berkshire Company

www.berkshire-company.com

You're a professional Mail Center Manager.

- You don't run a mailroom, you run a Mail Center.
- Promote this name change within your department/company.
- Professional appearance and behavior brings professional respect.
- Attain professional certification.

The Berkshire Company

www.berkshire-company.com

"Observe all men, thy self most."

August 1740

"There are three things extreamly hard:
steel, a diamond,
and to know one self."

January 1750

The Berkshire Company

www.berkshire-company.com

Keep accurate records of volumes and costs.

- You have to know what you have before you can make any changes.
- Keep a breakdown of mail by classes, categories, volumes and costs.
- Weekly/monthly reports will help you identify mailing cycles.
- This information will help you adjust to postal rate changes and accurately project budgets.

The Berkshire Company

www.berkshire-company.com

"Little strokes fell great oaks."

August 1750

The Berkshire Company

www.berkshire-company.com

Always look at volume discounts.

- Learn what types of volumes are needed for the classes of mail you generate.
- If volumes are too low, investigate presort houses and drop-ship companies.
- "Other" carriers also provide volume discounts.

The Berkshire Company

www.berkshire-company.com

“Look before, or you’ll find yourself behind.”

January 1735

The Berkshire Company

www.berkshire-company.com

Automation isn’t the future—it’s the present.

- Find out how your address list is stored.
- Investigate address list cleanup through the USPS.
- CASS/PAVE software.
- Move update options.
- Full Service Intelligent Mail Barcode
- Seamless acceptance

The Berkshire Company

www.berkshire-company.com

"One today is worth two tomorrows."

April 1757

The Berkshire Company

www.berkshire-company.com

Make sure you can account for your accountable mail.

- Certified mail can cost you more than postage.
- Keep accurate records of outbound accountable mail (firm books).
- Verify you're using the right class of mail.
- Make sure return cards are filed quickly and accurately.
- Treat incoming accountable mail like the USPS: get signatures (electronic, if possible).

The Berkshire Company

www.berkshire-company.com

"Diligence is the mother of good luck."

February 1736

The Berkshire Company

www.berkshire-company.com

Continue to work on your interoffice delivery system.

- What is the logic of the current system?
- Walk the routes with your employees.
- Purchase durable carts and folders.
- Make sure your database is constantly updated.
- Investigate automated and voice-activated sorting systems.

The Berkshire Company

www.berkshire-company.com

"Keep thy shop, and thy shop will keep thee."

June 1735

The Berkshire Company

www.berkshire-company.com

Review your business hours and staffing.

- Ensure you're open before & after normal business hours.
- Consider split shifts.
Busiest hours are usually 8am-11am and 3pm-6pm.
- All incoming/interoffice mail should be delivered as soon as possible.
- No mail on carts at the end of the day.
- All outbound mail should be metered before closing.

The Berkshire Company

www.berkshire-company.com

“Early to bed and early to rise, makes a man healthy, wealthy and wise.”

October 1735

The Berkshire Company

www.berkshire-company.com

Coordinate your schedule with the USPS schedule.

- Get your mail out of the USPS as soon as possible.
- Use P.O. and Caller boxes.
- Go to the USPS. Don't make them come to you.
- Get outbound mail into the USPS mailstream as early as possible (before 4pm).

The Berkshire Company

www.berkshire-company.com

"He that buys has need have 100 eyes, but one's enough for him that sells the stuff."

July 1743

The Berkshire Company

www.berkshire-company.com

Buy the right equipment for your shop.

- Technology is changing rapidly.
- What you couldn't afford yesterday, you may be able to afford today. And can't afford to be without tomorrow.
- Buy/lease equipment at the level you need with room for reasonable growth.
- Talk to your staff. What do they want/need?

The Berkshire Company

www.berkshire-company.com

“Drive thy business, let not it drive you.”

July 1734

The Berkshire Company

www.berkshire-company.com

Know your company's business.

- Learn about the industry you serve.
- Take any internal/external courses that are available.
- Volunteer to teach courses.
- Get on routing slips of trade publications.
- Read your company's annual report.
- Become a resource person.

The Berkshire Company

www.berkshire-company.com

"Read much, but not too many books."

February 1738

The Berkshire Company

www.berkshire-company.com

Read the trade periodicals.

- Subscribe to mail, print, and office services trade publications.
- Take note of companies/ situations that are like your own.
- Circulate periodicals among your staff.
- Write articles for these publications.
- Online resources, including LinkedIn groups.

The Berkshire Company

www.berkshire-company.com

"Wealth is not his that has it, but his that enjoys it."

March 1736

The Berkshire Company

www.berkshire-company.com

Use the USPS: Their name begins with "U" and ends with "service."

- Marketing/Sales departments.
- Business Center.
- Mailing Requirements and Business Mail Entry.
- Mailpiece Design Analysts.
- Free USPS Training.
- Online Mailpiece Design Professional certification.
- www.usps.com

The Berkshire Company

www.berkshire-company.com

“Reading makes a full man, meditation
a profound man, discourse a clear man.”

October 1738

“Generous minds are all of kin.”

March 1734

The Berkshire Company

www.berkshire-company.com

Network. Network. Network.

- Take advantage of the experience of others.
- There’s nothing new under the sun.
- Postal Customer Council (PCC).
- Mail Systems Management Association (MSMA).
- DMA, IPMA, MFSA, NACUMS, NAPM, TAWPI, XPLOR.
- Local mailing organizations.

The Berkshire Company

www.berkshire-company.com

"You may talk too much on the best of subjects."

April 1745

The Berkshire Company

www.berkshire-company.com

Questions?

mmf@berkshire-company.com

berkshire-company.com

MarkFallon.com

Twitter - @MarkMFallon

The Berkshire Company

www.berkshire-company.com