

Begin exploring the interactions that increase learning—and the ways they're organized by the CLASS tool.

The online Introduction to the CLASS™ Tool provides interactive activities within a fully-narrated presentation that builds teachers' comfort and familiarity with the CLASS tool.

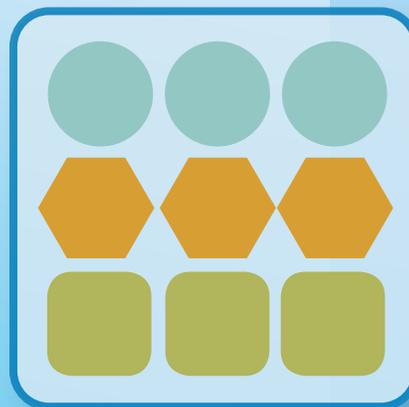

Who uses the online Introduction to the CLASS Tool?

Teachers, care providers, paraprofessionals, center directors, coaches, and others who would benefit from this introductory program.

Why use the online Introduction to the CLASS Tool?

Use this program when you need to increase

- Understanding of the connections between effective teacher-child interactions and improved learning
- Comfort with the CLASS measure prior to CLASS observations

Focus on what matters.

How much do subscriptions cost?

The more people within your organization who use the online Introduction to the CLASS Tool, the lower the 30-day subscription cost per person.

Subscriptions start at $45 per user. Contact us for group pricing.

How do I use the online Introduction to the CLASS Tool?

This program contains five narrated, self-paced units. Here's how to get the most out of your subscription:

1. Visit the Teachstone store (store.teachstone.com) to purchase online Introduction to the CLASS Tool subscriptions.
2. Consider adding CLASS Dimensions Guides to subscriptions. Use these booklets to provide an overview of the CLASS framework and practical suggestions for improving teaching practice.
3. Spend 1-2 hours interacting with the program to gain an overall understanding of effective interactions and how the CLASS tool organizes them—spending about 20 minutes on each unit.
4. Answer questions at the end of each unit to solidify learning.
5. Revisit program topics to deepen understanding as you encounter related situations and questions during daily work. If you have a CLASS Dimensions Guide, use it as a reference as you continue learning.
6. Once you've completed all units, take the end of program survey and receive your certificate of completion.

The Introduction to the CLASS Tool is available online in English and Spanish at the toddler and pre-K levels.