

URBAN FARMING COURSE

Summer Session July 11-13, 2014

Become an EXPERT! The Urban Farming Course is an intensive hands-on weekend program taught by Green City Growers Horticultural & Builds specialists, designed to give you the skills you need to grow food at home and in the community. Participants leave with an in-depth knowledge of course topics.

Course Schedule

7/11 Friday 6pm—8:30pm

6—8:30pm Overview of urban agriculture and GCG — Jessie

7/12 Saturday 10am—4pm

10am—12:30pm Raised beds, irrigation, soil, and physical structures — Erik

1pm—2:30pm Site selection, container choice, soil amendments — Jessie

2:30pm—4:30pm Planting, seasons, crop mapping, crop selection — Adrienne

Hands on: build small raised bed, plant some seeds

7/13 Sunday 10am—4pm

10am—1pm Maintaining the garden, insects, fungal — Laura

1:30pm—4:30pm Harvesting, processing, preserving, alternative urban ag (fruit, bees, chickens) — Jessie

Course Pricing

| | |
|------------------|---------|
| Course Fee | $250 |
| Course Materials | $38.25 |

Workshops will take place over the course of two and a half days, Friday evening to Sunday evening. Class space is limited; we recommend registering well in advance.

Dinner provided Friday night. Bring a bag lunch with you Saturday and Sunday.

