

GSX Named Silver Partner in the Microsoft Partner Network; Joins Microsoft System Center Alliance

Designation recognizes GSX technical expertise. Consolidated Microsoft SharePoint and Microsoft Exchange monitoring solutions to be on display at Microsoft Management Summit

Buffalo, NY – April 11, 2012 — GSX Solutions [www.gsx.com], the global leader in proactive, consolidated monitoring and reporting of enterprise collaboration environments, including Microsoft Exchange, Microsoft SharePoint, Blackberry Enterprise Server (BES) and Lotus Notes, today announced that it has been named a Silver Partner in the Microsoft Partner Network. In addition, GSX announced it has joined the Microsoft System Center Alliance to further the development and promotion of its consolidated Microsoft SharePoint and Microsoft Exchange monitoring and reporting solutions. GSX solutions working with Microsoft Corp.'s System Center Operations Manager will be on display at the Microsoft Management Summit in Las Vegas Nevada, April 16-20, 2012.

The move follows the recent GSX announcement of enhanced Microsoft SharePoint and Microsoft Exchange support, including an advanced reporting solution combined with a full range of monitoring enhancements. The Silver-level designation in the Microsoft Partner Network also recognizes the certified technical expertise of members of the GSX team.

"GSX provides tools for monitoring and reporting enterprise Microsoft SharePoint and Microsoft Exchange environments, and I am pleased to welcome them to our System Center Partner Alliance," said Sergio Klarreich, Director Strategic Alliances, Management and Security Division, Microsoft Corp. "In working with GSX Solutions and other partners, we serve the dynamic needs of our customers."

"Microsoft SharePoint and Microsoft Exchange solutions have become central to our portfolio, and joining the Microsoft Partner community helps to strengthen our technical ties and better serve our customers," said Antoine Leboyer, CEO of GSX. "It is in keeping with our philosophy to continually improve our products, in step with enhancements to the systems we monitor."

Exhibiting at Microsoft Management Summit
