

GSX Solutions expands into Asia Pacific with new office in Shanghai

Application Monitoring Performance specialist to grow revenue in Asia through indirect partner strategy

Orchard Park, NY – July 31st, 2013 — GSX Solutions [www.gsx.com], the global leader in proactive, consolidated monitoring and reporting of enterprise collaboration environments, including Microsoft Exchange, Microsoft SharePoint, BlackBerry Enterprise Server (BES), and IBM Notes, today announced that it is opening a new office in Shanghai to manage its Asia Pacific messaging and collaboration infrastructure through channel partners. The new channel strategy will enable GSX Solutions to drive user adoption and revenues through its expanding network of Managed Service Providers, System Integrators, hosting companies, and VARs/ VADs.

Heading up the Shanghai office is Victorian Dangoumau, Executive Director Asia Pacific. Victorian has helped lead GSX business development in Europe and the company's Exchange and SharePoint monitoring growth since 2011. Together with his team he will support the company's continued expansion into this strategic region through tier 1 and tier 2 partners.

"Our new office in Shanghai will enable us to focus on our growing APEC business," said Antoine Leboyer, CEO of GSX. "Our channel partner networks and customers can be assured of focused support for developing profitable businesses around monitoring and reporting solutions"

Legacy customers worldwide will continue to be served as usual. GSX is also opening a Boston HQ to manage partner relations in the North America. European partners are managed via offices in Geneva. For information on GSX partner opportunities, please visit www.gsx.com/become_partner.
