WEATHERSTON AWARDED CPCU DESIGNATION

New Berlin, WI (October 2010) – April Weatherston has been awarded the professional insurance designation Chartered Property Casualty Underwriter (CPCU®) by the American Institute for CPCU. This announcement was made by Peter L. Miller, MBA, President and Chief Executive Officer. The American Institute for CPCU is an independent, nonprofit educational organization that confers the CPCU designation on persons who complete eight rigorous courses and national examinations and meet its ethics and experience requirements. All CPCUs are required to maintain and improve their professional knowledge, skills, and competence through their commitment to the American Institute’s Code of Professional Ethics.

Weatherston is an Account Executive at HNI Risk Services, Inc. in New Berlin, Wisconsin. She has over thirty years of experience within the insurance industry, the last 9 of which have been with HNI focused almost exclusively on construction clients. In addition to her CPCU designation, Weatherston is also a Construction Risk and Insurance Specialist (CRIS).

She is an active member of the National Association of Women in Construction (NAWIC), National Roofing Contractors Association (NRCA), Wisconsin Roofing Contractors Association (WRCA), Midwest Roofing Contractors Association (MRCA), and the American Subcontractors Association (ASA).

Weatherston is a former student of the State University College of New York at Buffalo. She is currently in the process of completing her degree in Organization Management through Ashford University. She has one son serving in the U.S. Air Force and resides in Racine, WI with her husband, Tom.
