

The Goodwill Sale is scheduled for Thursday, March 12 through Saturday March 28, 2015. We need your help to make this 17 day event a success. Please invite your family and friends to also volunteer. This is a great opportunity for students who need services hours for school and/or religious programs.

Two volunteers will be scheduled per shift to assist Boston Store personnel collect donations at all six Boston Store locations: Southridge, Bayshore, Brookfield Square, Racine, Mayfair and Grand Avenue. Volunteers will accept customer donations and give them a Boston Store discount coupon for every item donated. This activity may require some physical activity such as reaching and bending.

Volunteers will be scheduled on a first-come, first-served basis.....so reply early. Deadline March 3, 2015. You will receive written confirmation of your volunteer commitment and instructional information.

This event greatly benefits Goodwill by dramatically increasing the pounds of textiles donated to our Retail Store and Donation Centers. The Retail Division supports Goodwill's mission by providing training and employment services for people who seek greater independence. The customer gets a great bargain on all Boston Store merchandise, including cosmetics and brands that never go on sale!

Volunteers give the time of their life. Thank you for yours!
