ACG Services, Inc. Selects Lucid Business Strategies for Web Design

CONTACT: Erin Vezzetti, Lucid Business Marketing Specialist 586-254-0095

<Shelby Twp >1/9/13> Lucid Business Strategies has been contracted to design and build a web site for ACG Services, Inc. in Macomb, MI.

ACG Services is a Machine Components Manufacturing company providing machined components, component repair/replacement, and reverse engineering to a variety of industries including Automotive and Machine Builders.

“We’re excited to work with ACG,” says Linda Angér, Lucid’s Marketing Communications Manager. “This website will be designed to generate results, based on our practice of industry research and methodology. As such, it will be the cornerstone of ACG’s overall marketing efforts.”

Lucid Business Strategies is a business consulting and marketing firm committed to helping small and medium-sized businesses grow their revenue. Not strictly a consulting, marketing, or web-design company but a hybrid of the three, our services are online and offline tools that drive revenue, foster growth, and build sustainable business results.
