How BeaconLive works with the Legal industry

Our vision is to build a bridge between Continuing Legal Education professionals and their audience. To carry out this mission, BeaconLive has built a customizable webinar and webcast platform to meet the pre, live, and post presentation needs of the CLE industry. As the CLE provider for the American Bar Association, several AM100 law firms, and professional CLE providers, we understand the importance of a professionally executed and flawless program.

BeaconLive's full service support team is dedicated to taking the tedious work off your desk by assisting you in getting your programming accredited in one or many jurisdictions, building integrated registration solutions, facilitating your live presentation delivery, post-event evaluations, online examinations, and certificate delivery.

At BeaconLive, we believe that effective communication between professionals is the key to successful learning and collaboration. Our team of Account Managers, Event Producers, and Live Moderators are trained in managing the whole process of your CLE event.

BeaconLive Services

Webinars

Work with your dedicated event service team to design and deliver your CLE event to an audience around the world. The BeaconLiveWeb platform allows you to deliver flawless presentations using streaming audio and video playback, webcam integration, ability to deliver surveys/polls, share your desktop, chat with participants, and more.

Webcasts

Work with BeaconLive to turn your in-person CLE event into an online event for a larger audience. Whether you need a videographer and webcast technician onsite, or you want to stream the event using our browser-based webcasting platform, BeaconLive can create a unique solution for you.

BeaconOnDemand

Following the delivery of your event, work with BeaconLive to create a professionally edited video file to share on your website. Further, repurpose all of your content by placing it in your branded media library for future viewings. BeaconLive's OnDemand solution integrates flawlessly with the BeaconCE and BeaconReg services.

BeaconReg

When you utilize BeaconLive's fully customizable registration services, your office can take advantage of our ability to deliver your email confirmations, reminders, handout distribution and certificate delivery, along with full e-commerce capabilities for your registrants.

BeaconBlast

When you utilize BeaconLive's email broadcasting services, you will have the assistance of our event service team to design and develop an email template and campaign to promote your upcoming event.

Customer Testimonials

Dedication | Knowledge | Professionalism

"We partnered with BeaconLive several years ago to assist us in delivering our CLE webcasts and webinars nationwide and are extremely satisfied with that decision. The services they provide are of the highest quality and their customer service is second to none. The entire service team has gone above and beyond to provide us with service and guidance on a number of projects. The quality of the product produced is outstanding! They are able to accommodate the unique needs and challenges that we face daily in CLE delivery. Most importantly, they understand the nature of our needs, how to deliver, and work to help us keep both quality and compliance at a high level."

John Holloway, Director of Operations, myLawCLE

"Following the delivery of our first event, I received excellent feedback from our participating attorneys. Then when I received our first invoice, I was absolutely thrilled, because what used to take hours to sort out is now a simple 'code and submit.' I love it!"
