Hopkinton was listed in Boston Magazine's 2011 "Best Places to Live" www.bostonmagazine.com. This is a boon for residents selling their home. Boston is the eighth busiest city for relocating professionals — many of whom have a great deal of geographic flexibility. Thus, it's more important than ever to market the community as well as the home.

If you're selling your home in Hopkinton, here are some handy resources to share with potential buyers to give them a feel for the community:

■ US News & World Report's list of Best U.S. Public High Schools
