Featured Speaker: Eben Hall, Sergeant, Kansas City, Missouri Police Department

Eben is a Sergeant for a major metropolitan city in the Kansas City area. He has served his agency for 17 years, with most of that time focused on service as a SWAT team sniper and entry specialist, and teaching firearms and defensive tactics at one of the nation's leading police academies. He works closely with area businesses and police departments in the prevention and management of workplace violence. He is a nationally certified instructor in all categories of firearms and defensive tactics training, and a veteran of the United States Marine Corp.
