

The Lives of the Saints

Name _____

Saint Cecilia

Saint Cecilia is the patron of music. She sang songs of praise to God even when she was afraid. She reminds us how music can lift our hearts and make us happy.

Think of a familiar tune, and write lyrics for a song in praise of God.

A large rectangular box with a light gray background and a drop shadow, containing a musical staff for writing lyrics. The staff has a pink treble clef on the left and a blue eighth note on the right. Below the staff are ten horizontal lines for writing.

Copyright ©2015 William H. Sadlier, Inc. All rights reserved. May be reproduced for religious education use (not commercial use)