Federal law requires all of our rifles and lowers be transferred through a licensed FFL dealer.

Option 1: Using a dealer we already have on file

This is the easiest and fastest way to transfer the items to you

1. Visit our dealer locator at: <http://info.stagarms.com/dealer-locator>
 2. Call local dealers near you to find out what their transfer fee is and to make sure they will accept the transfer
 3. Once you find a dealer willing to accept the transfer and the transfer fee is agreeable to you, call our sales office at 860-229-9994 x1 to speak with our sales staff.
 - If you already placed the order online have your order number ready when you call
 - If you have not already placed an order online our sales staff will be more than glad to take your order.

Option 2: If you want to use a dealer not listed on our dealer locator

1. Completely fill out your portion the form below
2. Give this form to your dealer and have them fill out their portion on the form below and send it to us along with a signed copy of their Federal Firearms License. The form and FFL can be faxed to the number above or scanned and e-mailed to Sales@stagarms.com
3. It will take up to two business days for our records department to verify the submitted information and for our sales office to contact you to take the order or to apply the transfer dealer to your webstore order.
 - If this is for a transfer for an order already placed on our webstore you will receive an e-mail update when the transfer dealer is applied to your order.
 - If you have not placed an order on the webstore, our sales office will contact you to take the order
