WMF ASIA combines the charm of the Far-East with European table culture.

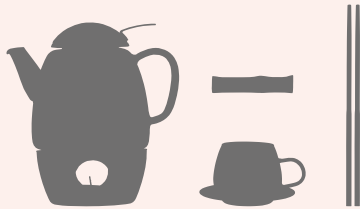

Exotic cultures have always fascinated people. In this era of foreign travel to far-flung destinations and exposure to international gastronomy, it is especially important that WMF represents the exotic. Those who replace the traditional chopsticks with heavy, high-quality WMF ASIA cutlery will be sure to impress their clientele. This is because WMF combines high-quality with a unique flair and is the perfect fusion of Asian and Europe table art.
