At Andreessen Horowitz, we are always incredibly excited to see technology founders taking on the hard work of reimagining an industry. It is clear that mobile, machine learning, and cloud delivered via SaaS will revolutionize every vertical, including legal. We love the work that AJ...and the Everlaw team have done to bring such high-powered efforts to an incredibly important part of the economy.

Steven Sinofsky · a16z.com · Jan 2016

We found that compared to the competitor that was bidding on the case at the time, the time saved just by using our platform — just going between documents, never mind the review — was something like 560 hours!
