A Personal Note from Gary Edmonds

— President/CEO —

You know it. And I know it.

Gifts are meaningful, but one gift surpasses them all ... The love of a God who sent His Son to redeem us and bring us everlasting hope — for today and eternity.

The gifts inside the catalog this year will help you honor God's unforgettable Gift — and pass it on in practical ways to those who need hope.

And there are plenty of choices — coffee seedlings for a coffee lover, a school library for a bookworm, vegetable seeds for a gardener, school supplies for a teacher ...

Whatever gifts you pick, they're sure to bring joy to each person on your list — and be cherished forever by children and families in need around the world.

You can even customize a gift card with your own message for each gift you give, providing your loved ones with gifts that make an eternal impact.

Thank you for standing with Food for the Hungry to tangibly share Jesus' love and help end poverty around the world. May your year be filled with joy.

Gary Edmonds

P.S. This catalog isn't just for Christmas. You can use it all year long — for birthdays, Mother's Day, and more. Or pass it along to someone who's shopping for YOU!

IMPORTANT NOTES:

1. Every item in this catalog has been specially requested by our team members serving in other countries. They understand the needs of the local communities where we work — so you can be confident that your gift today will truly change lives.
2. We can't designate your gift for a specific area or individual, like to your sponsored child, but you'll see that we've noted some of the specific countries where your gifts will be used.

3. Returning the enclosed reply form with your donation is easy — and you can shop online anytime (even Christmas Day!) at fh.org/catalog.

Food for the Hungry considers every gift a sacred trust and promises to use your donation in the most effective way possible. The items and needs in this catalog reflect the average costs at the time of writing, and may change at any time. Gifts cannot be traced back to individual beneficiaries or communities. In the event a ministry need has been fulfilled or changed, Food for the Hungry will honor your generosity by directing your gift toward a similar project.

Four Goats Bridged the Gap ...

Widowed — with four children and no support. The kids had to drop out of school to work.

Bekelech tried to work their tiny plot of farmland — but at best it only produced enough food for five months. After that, they descended into the Hunger Gap.

But this year, friends like you reached her Ethiopian village — providing Bekelech with four goats (which are great for fertilizer), plus over 200 pounds of potato seeds to plant!

Between the goats and the seeds, Bekelech and her children now have enough to eat year-round!

New for 2017!

Trees of LIFE!

Her husband's kidneys were failing. Four of her eight children had died. Hunger and poverty were closing in ...

But LIFE is what you gave to Kibeme and her family — in the form of trees.

First, Kibeme was hired to work in an FH tree nursery — raising fruit trees and coffee seedlings for her community — and earned cash for her time.

Soon, she earned enough money to purchase back her own farmland from moneylenders — rebuild her hut — buy sheep, oxen, a cow — and plant her OWN coffee!

"I used to beg for coffee leaves from my neighbors," Kibeme says. "I'm now harvesting coffee beans from my own backyard!"

EXPONENTIAL Impact

“Whoever is generous to the poor lends to the Lord, and he will repay him for his deed.”

You Sent Health — and Hope!

Anemic. Weak. Chronically malnourished.

Financial hardship made it difficult for Helen's parents to provide nutritious food. She often had to go without — which took a big toll on her 4-year-old body. But then a friend like you provided training to Helen's parents on cooking healthy meals — full of vitamins and nutrients for a well-balanced diet.

Today, Helen is growing and thriving. She's getting stronger every day — and can't wait to start school soon, where she'll be able to learn and achieve a bright future.

“I am thankful to FH for the support given to my community and for all that they do for our children,” says Helen's mother, Carmen.

It's all fun and games until somebody pulls a HAM-string!
