

Thanksgiving Table Cards

Whether you are gathering with two or twenty people this Thanksgiving, we hope these cards will help create an atmosphere of thankfulness.

Each card includes a Bible verse and question to inspire reflection and conversation. Use them during your Thanksgiving meal to help deepen your gratitude to God and love for one another.

Instructions & Tips:

- Print these cards (one-sided). Note: If your printer cuts off part of the page, choose "Print to Fit" in your printer options.
- You will find two cards on each page. Cut them apart along the white strip and then fold each side twice to create two mini-cards.
- Place a card at each setting around your holiday dinner table. Print a few extra to allow guests to find a card that interests them. There are twenty different cards in the collection.
- If you're looking for a good way to close your time of reflection, read Psalm 100 aloud and reflect together on the closing devotional.

Closing Devotional: Read Psalm 100

Sometimes the things we say do not resonate with joy. The pace of life can drain us of our thankfulness. Urgent needs call for attention and distract us from time spent at God's feet. Rather than count our blessings, we focus on our fears and forget that the Lord is still God. But we have a choice each day. Each day can be a day of thanksgiving. Will we focus on our circumstances, or on our faithful God? The psalmist can rejoice and worship the Lord with gladness because he knows these important truths: the Lord is God and we are his. God has made us and called us to be his very own. He has redeemed us through the death and resurrection of his Son to draw us close to him. God is not only great, he is also good and faithful. We can celebrate with the psalmist that the Lord is good and his love endures forever and his faithfulness continues to all generations.

Prayer:

Lord, make us people who recognize that you are God and that we are yours. Thank you for your enduring love and faithfulness. We give thanks to you and bless your name. Amen!

From all of us at Family Fire, we wish you a blessed Thanksgiving!
