because your employees are your business

Creating a dynamic culture of performance development conversations is critical to your success. We can take you there with the training expertise and tools to help you build this capacity in your organization.

Employee Performance Solutions has a uniquely singular focus—optimizing employee performance. We have been doing this work and only this work, for over a decade. Our simple and proven process repositions performance management from an overwhelming distraction to a strategic organizational advantage. Organizations frustrated by the inadequacies of quantitative ratings and ranking are turning to a more qualitative approach to performance management. This shift involves frequent and informal performance coaching conversations between managers and employees that lead to higher performance.

PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT TODAY

What skill is most critical in driving performance management success today? What action taken on the part of both managers and employees has the greatest impact on company performance?

The answer is candid dialogue.

WE HELP YOU CREATE A CULTURAL NORM THAT EMPHASIZES A SHIFT TOWARDS QUALITATIVE PERFORMANCE DIALOGUE

While most managers claim the ability to speak candidly with employees and provide feedback, the truth typically falls short of that claim. Surveys show that employees want more feedback outside of formal review time. Performance review ratings and rankings can get in the way of meaningful conversations that allow people to learn and grow. Ongoing candid dialogue takes the pressure out of the equation.

OPTIMIZE EMPLOYEE PERFORMANCE –TRANSFORM YOUR ORGANIZATION

- Create an environment of quick, ongoing, two-way performance conversations
- Train your managers to be performance coaches
- Give employees the tools and skills to give and receive feedback

THE SOLUTION INCLUDES SKILLS TRAINING

Only 6% of managers are skilled at giving performance feed-back. When employees ask for feedback, answers are usually vague. Talking about performance does not come naturally for most, but it can be learned. We train managers how to give feedback in a "manager as coach" style. Managers learn how to re-direct off-target performance and help employees grow. We train employees how to use their professional networks to expand their perspectives. Everyone learns as they work and acquires the ability to proactively ask the questions that result in new points of view.

CHANGING THE EQUATION

Teaching both managers and employees effective communication strategies generates actionable insights and increases self-knowledge. Our training shifts the balance of responsibility from the manager to a co-owned manager/employee model.

TANGIBLE RESULTS

Everyone immediately puts new skills and tools to use with the 5 and 10-Minute Touch Base framework. This structured yet informal model leads to opportunities for thoughtful and profound dialogue.

Performance is a combination of results and behaviors

Results describe what gets done, and Behaviors describe how the work gets done. The Performance Continuum is based on the belief that what gets accomplished is as important as how it is accomplished.

If we were to draw a picture of performance effectiveness, it would look like this 4-square model we refer to as the Employee Performance Continuum:

OUR SOLUTIONS ARE DESIGNED TO HELP YOU MOVE EMPLOYEES TOWARDS THE "UPPER RIGHT"

We start by re-shaping communications between managers and employees based on two-way, frequent, informal conversations designed to exchange meaningful information. When managers and employees can speak comfortably and candidly with each other, strengths and accomplishments are acknowledged, and performance expectations are easily discussed, so everyone can focus on achieving exceptional results.

PERFORMANCE CONTINUUM FEEDBACK METHOD®

Through our performance coaching skills training, managers learn to accurately assess performance levels and employee performance types to identify key strengths and development areas. Our approach bypasses the need to raise negative performance issues, thus avoiding defensive reactions. Learning to reframe conversations into non-critical requests, managers effectively coach employees without seeming harsh, confrontational or threatening. The focus is on performance solutions and goals. We equip managers to implement the 10-Minute Touch Base, a framework used to focus employees and maximize performance.

OUR WORKSHOPS

Our workshops increase everyone's ability to engage in meaningful and insightful performance conversations. We partner with you to build the capacity of managers and employees to turn the outdated, one-way feedback process (manager-to-employee) into a more collaborative exchange.

Training Delivery Options

We offer on-site instructor-led workshops, webinars, e-learning, training of internal facilitators, and supportive print materials tailored for your organization.

PERFORMANCE COACHING CONVERSATIONS

Most managers are able to assess and describe employee performance issues, yet they delay or altogether avoid performance conversations, finding it difficult to translate concerns into effective conversations that are comfortable for both them and the employee. Providing feedback is key to improving performance. In this program managers acquire the skills necessary to reinforce collaborative relationships with employees, improve performance, and accomplish organizational goals.
