

Cowan, Guteski & Co., P.A.'s Chris Cowan Honored by Cystic Fibrosis Foundation

Toms River, NJ, April 20, 2016 – Chris Cowan, senior manager at Cowan, Guteski & Co., P.A. will be welcomed into the 2016 class of New Jersey's Finest Young Professionals during the Greater New Jersey Chapter of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation's Celebrated Chef's Tasting Dinner on May 4th at the Waterside in North Bergen, NJ.

As senior manager of Cowan, Guteski & Co., P.A.'s construction services group and manager of the firm's accounting and auditing services group, Chris' dedication to exceptional service for both clients and colleagues is apparent in his consistent efforts to motivate those around him to reach their respective goals. Additionally, his active involvement in Monmouth and Ocean counties has earned him this prestigious recognition from the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation.

"Not only does Chris go above and beyond for his clients, he is a leader in our community and a mentor to younger staff members," said Donald A. Cowan, managing director, Cowan, Guteski & Co., P.A. "He works tirelessly to inspire those around him and continuously drives home the importance of giving back. We are thrilled that Chris is receiving this recognition. He truly is one of New Jersey's Finest Young Professionals."

Chris was honored by the United Way of Ocean County as one of their Young Altruistic Professionals, and serves as treasurer for Shred Out Cancer, as well as on committees for the New Jersey Builders Association and Shore Builders Association of Central New Jersey. Chris is a frequent speaker at colleges and universities throughout New Jersey, discussing career opportunities in the accounting profession. He has written and recorded a recruiting podcast, as well as various articles for publication.

Chris is a graduate of the Richard Stockton College of New Jersey, a Certified Public Accountant, a Certified Construction Industry Financial Professional, and a QuickBooks ProAdvisor. He is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, the New Jersey Society of Certified Public Accountants and the Construction Financial Management Association. Chris was also named to the NJ CPA Magazine's first annual prestigious top 30 under 30 list compiled by the New Jersey Society of Certified Public Accountants. In 2015, Chris graduated from the Upstream Academy's three year Emerging Leaders Academy program.

Cowan, Guteski & Co., P.A., a leading accounting and profitability consulting firm in New Jersey. Visit www.cgteam.com to learn more about the firm and Chris Cowan, or contact Danielle Bagdzinski, marketing coordinator at 732-349-6880, ext. 7742 or dbagdzinski@cgteam.com.