Celebrating the Holidays at JOW

JOW will be hosting a holiday party for staff and participants on Friday, December 16. As part of this event, Café 1919 will be serving a special holiday meal offered for free to all who are interested. The meal will include turkey and ham, potatoes, vegetables, dinner roll, and dessert; this will be the only meal offered in the cafeteria on that day. Participants are welcome to bring a cold lunch from home as an alternative.

Reminder

As the temperatures continue to drop, we will have many more articles of clothing such as coats, hats and gloves. In order to keep track of these items and make sure that they go home with the correct individuals, please clearly label everything sent in with participants' first names and last initial. If you feel that your participant is missing something, please notify his or her Case Manager. Thank you for your cooperation!

Participant Composition: "Our New Case Manager"

Last month, participants in Life Skills chose to write about Brandon, our new JOW Life Skills Case Manager. Their composition is printed here:

We have a new case manager!
His name is Brandon Peters.
Dejun says he's a trouble-maker!
Deloris said he likes cookies.
He likes animals.
We like his red hair!
He is also a good cook.
Brandon's birthday is July 21.
His favorite color is green.
Brandon likes to hike and bike.
We like our new case manager!

Wishing You a Delectable December!

Brandon, Gail, Ivy, Kelli, Kita, Laura, Nichole and Rebecca
