

Government agency services

EY offers support capabilities to augment governmental and law enforcement agencies. Our network of Fraud Investigation & Dispute Services (FIDS) practices in member firms worldwide comprises more than 4,500 professionals in 154 cities in 73 countries, and includes professionals with former government sector investigative experience. Our global team understands the support needs of complex fraud investigations, and includes professionals with the relevant certifications and active security clearances needed to work collaboratively and effectively.

Our services include:

- ▶ Anti-fraud program development and risk assessment
- ▶ Accounting investigation support
- ▶ Investigation program development and performance improvement
- ▶ Investigative workforce development and training
- ▶ Information governance
- ▶ Forensic data analytics and data management
- ▶ Electronic discovery
- ▶ Case management support
- ▶ Enhanced due diligence
- ▶ Cybercrime investigations
- ▶ Cyber security risk analysis
- ▶ Procurement and supply chain risk analysis

Our professionals have extensive experience helping address cybersecurity breach, fraud, anticorruption and financial crimes, as well as mitigating financial, operational and reputational risks. Our collective insight gleaned from working across multiple industry sectors allows us to better assist our government clients in their investigative efforts to uncover relevant evidence.

Our FIDS team is committed to working with government clients

We are experienced in serving government agencies by providing investigative insight and techniques that help identify and establish defensible factual information concerning even the most complex issues related to non-compliant behavior, waste, fraud and abuse.

We have the resources to assist clients with their unique needs

We deploy professionals with the right certifications, functional and regulatory experience needed to help each client meet its own distinctive challenges. Our multidisciplinary approach and broad sector experience can provide government agencies the proper understanding and guidance to resolve issues, manage risks, and maintain successful focus on their mission.

Our work

EY professionals have supported many cabinet, executive departments and agencies, as well as independent agencies of the United States government.
