ULTRA COURT

GYM FLOOR COVER TILES & ROLLS

No other system on the market provides the performance that the Ultra Court Wood Floor Protection System provides. Combining an attractive appearance, extreme durability, lightweight no-slip floor grip, with unequaled flexibility... there is no better value available in the floor protection market than the Ultra Court gym floor cover tiles or rolls.

The tile and cover roll systems allow you to quickly and easily transform your gym into a highly versatile event center. It requires no expensive seaming tape, no learning curve for installation, and no heavy racking systems, as the Ultra Court's lightweight design makes transport and use easy. When you aren't covering your entire floor with tiles or rolls, they can be used for specific area protection such as; under players' chairs, in front of the bleachers for basketball games, or anywhere floor protection is needed. Protect your floor, your budget, and the environment with these all-around performance champions.
