Janus International Group, LLC Hosts Janus Road Tour: Complimentary Education Workshop Series in Atlanta, GA

Janus Road Tour Brings Together Self Storage Owners, Operators, and Investors Interested in Conversions, Retrofit, Feasibility, Facility Operations and Financial Options

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

(Temple, GA – February 26, 2016) On February 18, Janus International began its 2016 Road Tour season at the Hyatt Atlanta Midtown with over 60 people in attendance.

The day began with a welcome from Troy Bix of Inside Self Storage as he outlined the various sessions and speakers listed in the lineup.

Throughout the workshop, attendees heard from 6 industry experts as they presented various current popular topics in the self storage business. Sue Haviland of Haviland Self Storage Solutions and Self Storage 101 gave two presentations with the first being Self Storage Feasibility: To Build or Not to Build, and the second being Self Storage Ownership: I Own It...Now What?

Dean Jernigan of Jernigan Capital made a special appearance and gave the crowd some insight with his talk about Self Storage Financing.

Jim Ponti from Janus International Group brought up the topic of changing spaces with his presentation on Conversions: Changing Spaces.

Later, Terry Bagley from Janus and Patrick Reilly from Urban Self Storage teamed up to present their talk entitled R3: Renovate, Remodel or Retrofit for Retention, Revenue and Real (Estate) Value.

Finally, Terry Bagley returned to the stage with Jon Loftin from PTI Security Systems to speak about the SecurGuard Lock with a presentation called Individual Door Access Control & Security.

The intimate nature of the event provided an opportunity for questions to be asked of the industry professional throughout the day, and audience members were able to seek out answers to specific questions.

Looking beyond the Atlanta event, JRT2016 will continue throughout the year with dates in:

Boston, MA on July 21

Seattle, WA on October 20
Houston, TX on December 1
