FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Janus International Expansion Underway

(Temple, GA – June 11, 2006) Janus International has broken ground on their new facility expansion, which will increase working square footage by 30 percent.

“Business has grown quite rapidly, and we plan to expand further in the future,” said Janus President David Curtis. The expansion, initially planned for 2008, will increase the current square footage from 82,250 to 117,250. Expanding the facility will not only allow Janus to service clients more effectively, it will add jobs to the current staff of 210.

The expansion is expected to progress quickly and will be functional by late summer 2006. In addition, Janus has expansion plans for two other plants in the United States – one in Houston, Texas, and another outside Phoenix, Arizona.
