Janus International Lends Support to Wounded Warrior Outdoors

(Temple, GA – April 8, 2010) Janus International is pleased to announce that it has become a sponsor of Wounded Warrior Outdoors, a nonprofit organization that provides hunting and fishing trips to wounded United States and Canadian veterans. The corporation's goal is to provide four annual trips for a total of fifty veterans.

Wounded Warrior Outdoors was organized to both support and pay homage to the brave wounded service members returning home from Afghanistan and Iraq. Organizer Ron Raboud had the goal of providing tangible support to the severely wounded and to help them on the road to healing, both physically and mentally. "Janus International and I personally commend Mr. Raboud on his organization of such a worthy cause," states Janus President David Curtis. "We cannot do enough to support our troops, their families and the sacrifices they have made for our country."
