

You're the expert

YourTutor is the safety net

Extra, after-hours help for your students

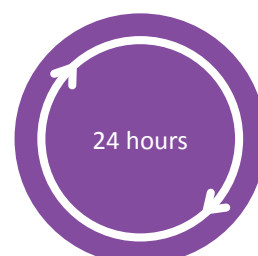

YourTutor supports your students off-campus, after-hours and outside your contact hours, during holidays, weekends, or even offshore. We're there when their most important resource - you, their teacher - can't be available.

- Lecturer office hours
- Student services
- Counselling
- Cultural mentoring
- English support

- YourTutor - *Connect Live
live, academic support.
Students sign in for help using real-time chat and the interactive whiteboard

- YourTutor - *24/7 writing help 24/7 English, grammar, and writing help. Your students can get comprehensive help with their writing any time, and at any stage of their draft

Helping you focus on what's important

Whether it's 7:54pm on a Tuesday or 9:05pm on a Sunday, your students can log in online and connect immediately to a live, anonymous, friendly tutor who will help them work out a specific problem.

You and other university staff have important course content to deliver, without the added pressure of being on-hand after hours for the range of repetitive student enquiries.

YourTutor is used across many faculties, with tutors available online for help with English and writing, referencing, assignment research, accounting, economics, statistics and more.

