

“Mo” Trivia

Get your students interacting with these fun questions:

- +Name five famous fellows that sported a mustache.
- +In what country was Movember started? (Australia)
- +According to the American Cancer Society, how many men were estimated to develop prostate cancer last year? (241,710 in 2012)
- +Post a picture of a famous celebrity’s ‘stache and have students guess who’s it is. Here’s some inspiration.
- +Name the famous mustached plumber. (Hint: he always wears a red cap) (Mario)
- +Which snack food’s label features a ‘stache? (Pringles)
- +What’s the most common type of cancer in men? (Prostate)
- +Name the silent film star with a famous “mo.” (Charlie Chaplin)
- +Movember isn’t just about prostate cancer awareness. What other causes does it support? (Men’s mental health issues and testicular cancer)
- +In 2012, how much did Mo Bros and Mo Sistas raise worldwide? ($147.0 million)
- +How long did Albert Einstein have his mustache for? (Over 50 years)
- +The first mustache ever on record dates back to when? (300 B.C. - it depicts a horseman with a thick black mustache)
- +Fill in the blank: The world’s longest mustache is believed to be ___ ft. (14ft! It belongs to Ram Singh Chauhan of Rajasthan, India, who regularly massages it with mustard and coconut oil to keep it healthy.)
- +In a deck of cards, which face card is the only without a mustache? (The King of Hearts)
- +On average, a man with a mustache touches it _____ times a day. (760)