

Is A Furniture Protection Plan Right For Your Customer?

Four Common Furniture Foes

Most furniture faces danger daily. But there are four frequent offenders that put your customers at the most risk.

Kids

That bundle of joy could cost you a bundle.

Food/Drink

There's always a game on, right?

Pokes/Punctures

Keep your custom upholstery safe and sound

Defects

No shame in the blame, we'll fix it just the same.

Clumsy? Cautious? Does it matter?

Whether your customers are careful or careless, their furniture is still at risk. According to our numbers, oftentimes customers can get hit with a repair without even lifting a finger.

The Long Haul

Furniture is a major investment that ages with a family. Just think about how often that living room set becomes the new basement furniture.
