

SHAREPOINT TRAINING FACTS

SharePoint for the Site Owner and Power User

This course is ideal for the basic SharePoint user!

Training will help the end user better navigate through the SharePoint site and use its features such as for site and list creation and customization and access management.

SharePoint Configuration and Administration

This course is ideal for administrators involved with SharePoint's technical setup and maintenance!

Training through the entire installation, configuration and administration processes for SharePoint. Learn how to effectively monitor and manage SharePoint sites.

SharePoint Application Development

This course is ideal for .NET developers!

Training will concentrate on the new features available in SharePoint and how developers can best leverage them within their specific organizations.

SharePoint Infrastructure Development

This course is ideal for experienced administrators tasked with designing a SharePoint infrastructure!

Training will be focused on the skills required to design the SharePoint infrastructure for a team-based setting, specifically within medium to large size organizations.

SharePoint Application Design and Development

This course is ideal for experienced developers!

Training is geared towards the customization aspects available with SharePoint. Learn all the tricks for designing custom codes deployed to SharePoint servers.

PHOENIX TS SERVICES

Hosted Training at our Facilities | Onsite Training | Virtual Learning | Open-Enrollment Training
Custom Content