Who is eligible for the plan?

The Business Plan is available to for-profit businesses with 100 or fewer employees. Companies with publicly traded stock are excluded. Membership fees are based on the plan chosen by the business owner. The owner may choose to purchase the plan that best meets their needs as long as number of employees does not exceed the number of employees covered by the chosen plan. Note, all consultation/services are contingent upon the provider lawyer's professional judgment.

Due to regulatory requirements, benefits and rates vary in certain provinces. The information contained in this material is for illustrative purposes only and is not a contract. It is intended to provide a general overview of plan coverage; only a plan contract can give actual terms, coverage, amounts, conditions and exclusions.

Legal Consultation Services:

Specific legal matters covered under Designated Consultations are not covered under this benefit.

Legal Correspondence Services:

Collection letters, covered by the Debt Collection Letters Benefit, are specifically excluded from this benefit.

You may use your preferred member discount and phone consultation benefit for any plan exclusions. Fines, court costs, penalties, expert witness fees, bonds, bail bonds, and any out-of-pocket expenses are your responsibility and are not part of your membership fees and/or benefits. A retainer fee may be required prior to services being rendered for services not otherwise covered by your membership benefits.
