4th Source, US-Based Information Technology Consulting Firm, Recognized as 44th Fastest Growing Privately Held Company in Atlanta. The Atlanta Business Chronicle Recognized 4th Source at their 15th Annual Pacesetters Awards Program Showcasing Rapidly Growing Companies

Canton, GA – Canton, GA – 4th Source, a US-based information technology consulting firm, was recognized at the Atlanta Business Chronicle's 15th annual Pacesetters Awards as the 44th fastest growing privately held company in metro Atlanta. This is the first year 4th Source has been recognized on the prestigious list.

4th Source offers clients US-based cutting-edge IT strategies with the cost benefits of an "offshore" solution provided through a strategic mix of US and international locations. 4th Source also has offices in Memphis, Tennessee (serving East Coast clients) and Denver, Colorado (serving West Coast clients). 4th Source is supported by nearshore Latin American "Centers of Excellence" in Mexico, Costa Rica, Argentina and Brazil.

"We are honored to receive such a prestigious award recognizing our development and expansion. Our 4th Source team is looking forward to our significant growth in the following years," said 4th Source COO Mark Molinari.

About 4th Source

4th Source is a US-based strategy, business and IT consulting firm founded on the principle that "Proximity Matters". With headquarters in Canton, GA, 4th Source also has offices in Memphis, Tennessee and Denver, Colorado, and is supported by "nearshore" Latin American Centers of Excellence in Mexico, Costa Rica, Argentina and Brazil. 4th Source has positioned itself to complement and extend the internal staff of each company they work with. 4th Source follows an enhanced software lifecycle approach; leveraging the proximity and availability of near shore resources to bring project teams together during critical phases of delivery and ensure customer success.

4th Source's mission "is to deliver the cost benefits of an offshore strategy, with enhanced quality, by offering a nearshore solution and location transparency." They accomplish this by establishing long-term relationships with their clients, by enabling them to optimize performance throughout the different stages of their business, and achieving accelerated returns on their technology investments. 4th Source's blended "nearshore" model; with dedicated centers focused on Application Development, Software Quality Assurance & Testing, Systems Production Support & Maintenance, take advantage of the NAFTA framework (no H1-B visa's & IPR protection), time zone and cultural proximity. These attributes, combined with cutting-edge IT services, allows 4th Source to innovate, build, deploy and operate business solutions that help their clients succeed in a hyper-competitive marketplace.
