

PERMISSION FOR JWY OUTDOOR PARK EXCURSION

On days when the weather is nice we would like to take the group of children attending our morning JWY Arts Camp on a short walk to the grassy area at the end of our back parking lot. The area is accessible by sidewalk, so the children will not be crossing streets, parking lots, etc. The grassy area is shaded by trees and large enough for us to enjoy a picnic-style snack, sing songs, play games, etc.

Although there will be a minimal exposure to sun, it would be best if you applied sunscreen to your child's face, arms, and legs.

_____ Yes, I give permission to the JWY camp staff to escort and supervise my child on outdoor park excursions as described above.

_____ No, I do not give permission to JWY camp staff to escort/supervise my child on outdoor park excursions.
