A Good One Has Gone Home

Sr. Barbara Mulvehill 1942–2012

On December 12, 2012, Maryvale lost a devoted Daughter of Charity, Sister Barbara Mulvehill, D.C. She breathed her last breath in the Maryvale Chapel as she was bringing hand-cut roses to the altar on the Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe.

Her loving memory brings to mind sadness due to the loss of her physical presence, but also happiness at having been touched by her gentle and loving manner of life. She is now enjoying the splendor of heaven.

Sister Barbara was born in St. Louis, Missouri and grew up in Burlington, Iowa. She was raised by a loving father and mother who nurtured her love for God along with her two older sisters, Elaine and Linda. Sister Barbara entered the Daughters of Charity in 1959 after seeing the example and happiness of her sister, Linda, who had entered the Daughters of Charity in 1956.

Sister Barbara chose the ministry of education and was a teacher and principal at various locations throughout the country, including the Denver, Phoenix and Los Angeles areas. She spent the last 21 years of her ministry at Maryvale serving as the Director of Early Education and most recently as Campus Minister. She loved education and guided many students to academic and spiritual knowledge through her teaching and the example she lived as a loving follower of Jesus.

Over the past ten years, she quietly endured significant health challenges, yet she remained dedicated to her ministry which she always conducted with a smile, words of wisdom, and kindness.

She celebrated 50 years of her life as a Daughter of Charity at Maryvale on June 5, 2010. It was a joyous celebration attended by her family, her friends, and her Community of Daughters of Charity. She will be remembered with love and gratitude by many whose life was touched by her. May she rest in peace. a

The Little Book

Ask any Maryvale Associate about a situation and what guidance our Core Values would provide and almost immediately they will defer to their "little book" – a handy, 5" x 7" spiral booklet, Integrating and Living the Vincentian Core Values.

Three years ago, Sister Martha Garcia, D.C. arrived at Maryvale. As Vice President of Mission Integration she assembled and introduced this valuable resource to Maryvale Associates. It is a tangible expression of our Core Values – Respect, Compassionate Service, Simplicity, Advocacy for the Poor and Inventiveness to Infinity. Enmeshed in Maryvale's culture they provide invaluable service standards and guidelines for our care of the precious children and families we serve as well as a help to each of us individually.

The "little book" as it is known goes beyond simply defining our Core Values. It provides guidance through action statements that are listed below each Vincentian Core Value and its definition. The booklet is used at All Associates Meetings, and in departmental and other meetings. And individually; the "little book" is a reference for our Associates, who can read it again and again, taking a different message from it each time depending on what their day is like or what they are experiencing personally or professionally.

Message from Steve Gunther

Dear Friends of Maryvale,

As we celebrate the close of 2012 and the beginning of 2013, several exciting transitions have started and are taking hold at Maryvale.

In the second half of 2012, we began to take some meaningful steps forward, rooted in our Mission and Core Values and guided by our five strategic planning priorities:

- Create a Culture Consistent with Our Mission and Core Values
- Align Our Programs with Community Needs
- Be a Provider of Choice (Quality Programs)
- Increase Maryvale's Visibility and Awareness in the Community
- Expand and Strengthen Our Sources of Funding

National Accreditation

Among these, we have officially embarked on our journey toward national accreditation through the Council on Accreditation (COA). This is an exciting process that will allow all of us here at Maryvale to carefully evaluate how we serve and meet the needs of children, youth and families through our programs. In doing so, we will begin to make changes that will ensure we are providing the highest quality and most comprehensive services possible all supported by a sound and effective agency structure.

Trauma Informed Care

We are on the threshold of a total organizational transformation to trauma informed care. We are pleased to be partnering with the Traumatic Stress Institute in Connecticut to assist us with this most important shift in how we understand and meet the needs of those whom we serve. Without question, this will be one of the most significant changes in our recent history as to the service we provide and the way it is given. We recognize that those entrusted to our care often times have experienced multiple trauma in their lives and every positive interaction they have with members of the Maryvale family is one more opportunity for healing. Therefore, every Associate at Maryvale, whether part of the program staff, facilities, human resources, finance, housekeeping or dietary, has already or within the year will take part in a threeday foundational training.

Senior Leadership Team

We have set a path before us filled with new opportunities and, most certainly challenges. Yet, I am pleased to have a wonderful Senior Team in place to provide the leadership necessary for us to achieve the goals we have set. In the past months, we have welcomed some new members to our team: Jacqueline Bloom-Genevitz, Vice President of Quality Assurance & Training, Dr. Ike Kerhulas, Vice President of Clinical Services, and Christina Moore, Vice President of Early Childhood Education. In early December, we welcomed Paul Pulver as our new Vice President of Development & Communications as Rosemarie Boerger decided to join her husband in retirement.

Exceptional Care

Recently after a Family Council Meeting at one of our Early Education Centers, I visited with a few parents who shared with me their experience of being part of the Council and having the opportunity to provide leadership and ideas to the program. As the conversation ended and we began to walk toward our cars, one of the fathers commented: "You know my daughter gets more than an education here... she gets mothering." As I turned back, he went on to explain that he was a single father and how much he appreciates all that his daughter receives from her teachers; things that, as a single dad, he cannot always provide to her.

As the transitions continue – rooted in our Core Values of Respect, Simplicity, Compassionate Service, Advocacy for the Poor, and Inventiveness to Infinity – we must remember the important gifts we have been given to touch lives and bring the healing, hope, and love of Christ to others.

May God bless you all for your generosity and support of Maryvale's ministry . . . without you none of this would be possible!

Blessings,

Steve Gunther, MSW President & Executive Director

Active Hours – a Recipe for Calm Minds, Happy Hearts and Fit Bodies

Recreational Activity is vital to the residents of Maryvale. The therapeutic value of creative and energetic activities goes without saying. Maryvale's Activities Team works hard to provide recreational therapy to keep up with the growing needs and demands of our unique population. Many clubs engage the girls in a variety of passions. Sewing, pottery and crafts, gardening, drawing and painting, and athletic team play are some of the recreational and expressive activities available to our residents.

A Hiking Club has been established as a way of keeping our girls' minds and bodies active. Every other weekend, Maryvale staff and residents embark on a hiking trip, choosing from one of several hiking trails throughout the Los Angeles metro area.

The health benefits of regular exercise are widely known. But participants in the Hiking Club experience more than just a rigorous work out. Through the many trails, the girls can be seen encouraging others in the group, be it a fellow resident or a staff member. They are never shy about lending a hand to help someone to get over a rock or difficult step. There is a sense of unity, camaraderie and achievement that shines brightly on the faces of our residents during and after their hiking adventure. And an eagerness to do it again, at the soonest opportunity! Hiking gives them the opportunity to let their character shine. 🗅

The adventures of the Hiking Club can often be seen on Maryvale's Facebook fan page. Please check us out on Facebook at www.facebook.com/maryvaleca.

Maryvale Artists

Maryvale residents bear an abundance of artistic talent. Over the past several years, our residents have entered and sold paintings in Pasadena's All Saints Church Foster Care Project Art Show. Always happy to share their work we asked our residents to create a drawing that would be included in a set of six cards. Children from our Early Education Program were also invited to share their art. Six entries were selected and the set of cards were printed and presented as thank vou gifts to our many volunteers. A second set of note cards were developed after residents displayed their photo art at a recent campus event. The response to each of these sets of note cards has prompted us to extend their reach. To obtain a set of cards free for the asking we invite you to call the Development Department at 626-280-6510. 🏠

Maryvale has been able to serve Los Angeles' children in need for 157 years through the generosity of our donors. Donations of all kind can be made by phoning Maryvale, using the enclosed remittance envelope or by going on line at www.maryvale-ca.org. To discuss naming Maryvale in your will or other charitable gift planning options, call the Development Department at 626-280-6510.

A Special Thank You to the Dodgers & Rite Aid

May 3rd was National Thank a Youth Worker Day, so Maryvale and the Daughters of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul hosted a celebration in honor of their Residential Care and Mental Health Associates. Adding to the celebration, Maryvale was presented with a $15,000 grant from the Rite Aid Foundation. On hand to present the award were Rite Aid District Manager, Jilbert Shahdaryan and local Store Manager Edna Pacheco.

Youth care workers are integral to Maryvale's Residential Based Treatment and Mental Health Services. It was an honor to celebrate Maryvale's Associates who work selflessly with love and respect caring for the girls at Maryvale who suffer from the effects of abuse, abandonment, and personal crisis.

In July, Maryvale received on-field recognition as the first recipient of the Los Angeles Dodgers "Go To Bat Award" which was presented along with the Dodger's partner, State Farm Insurance, to recognize local organizations that strengthen the Greater Los Angeles community.

Treasures from Our Past

Our Rich Heritage of 157 Years

Maryvale originated in the 1850's when Bishop Amat (First Bishop of the Monterey/Los Angeles Diocese) asked the Daughters of Charity to open an orphanage for the growing number of abandoned children living in the streets of the then Pueblo de Los Angeles.

On January 6, 1856 five Daughters of Charity arrived from their American Provincial House in Maryland to open Los Angeles' first orphanage and hospital in the small wood-frame Wilson Home on the site of what we now know as Los Angeles' Union Station.

By 1857 the number of children at the orphanage had grown, and the Sisters built a new building adjacent to the first. In 1869, it was officially named the Los Angeles Orphan Asylum.

As the area's orphan population grew, a site was purchased in 1891 in Boyle Heights and a majestic building erected. Thousands of youngsters were cared for until the location was abandoned 62 years later due to earthquake damage and freeway expansion.

In 1953, the Rosemead location was dedicated and opened under the name of Maryvale. Currently, Maryvale is a residential facility for girls ages 6 through 17. An After Care Program supports former residents as well as Transitional Housing in El Monte. In 1999, our Early Childhood Education Program, originally established at Maryvale in 1968, expanded to include a second location in Duarte. Through the years Mental Health Services became an integral part of all of Maryvale's programs of care.

On February 7, 2011 the Maryvale Family Resource & Early Education Center opened in Duarte increasing the capacity of our Early Childhood Education Program to serve 246 children. The location is home to Maryvale's comprehensive Community-Based Mental Health Program that expands crisis prevention and intervention services to families, children and individuals.

Responding to the Future A Time for Change, a New Approach

Maryvale acknowledges the profound impact that childhood trauma has on the children and families we serve. For this reason Maryvale's Residential Treatment Program is undergoing a profound transformation. Lead by Dr. Ike Kerhulas, Vice President of Clinical Services, a task group of volunteer Associates is guiding Maryvale's efforts in transforming from a culture of crisis intervention to a Trauma Informed Treatment Center.

Trauma Informed Care is the provision of treatment that recognizes the impact of trauma on youth and offers interventions that address both trauma related symptoms and their underlying causes. All children placed in residential care at Maryvale have experienced severe trauma. They have been removed from their homes due to a documented history of emotional abuse, neglect, physical abuse, sexual abuse and abandonment.

Trauma Informed Care moves Maryvale from a reactive treatment approach to a proactive treatment model. An Assessment-Driven Treatment Model and a Restorative Approach methodology will be used. This allows for assessing residents sooner, and more accurately, and building an action plan specific to each child's individual treatment needs. These initiatives will enhance the care and treatment of our girls in residence.

The transformation to Trauma Informed Care is a major shift for Marvvale and requires that all staff receive training in this adopted new model of care. Maryvale has engaged The Traumatic Stress Institute of Klingberg Family Centers in Connecticut to conduct our trainings. Their materials point out that, "When a child depends on an adult for nurturance, safety, and love, he or she should not be taking a risk. However, after betraval, making connections requires risking disappointment at a minimum, if not shame, loss, and further trauma. Most [children] in the mental health and child welfare systems have been hurt and betrayed many times by parents, by other caretakers, by the system." They further relate, "To heal, a traumatized [child] must risk connecting with caring adults who are different from those of his or her past. Yet, there are many reasons why [a child] would not take that chance." Trauma Informed Care is based on creating an understanding, respectful and non-punitive relationship that over time demonstrates to the child that this is in fact an adult who is different from those of her past.

Because all of Maryvale's Associates interact with our residents all will have the opportunity to participate in the three-day Trauma Informed Care Training, "Risking Connections." The first of these training sessions was held at Maryvale in late October with 55 Associates attending. The Risking Connections Training focused on several key points:

- It is a philosophy of treatment rather than a treatment technique.
- It is aimed at organizational staff from all disciplines, roles and levels of training and creates a common language among staff to speak about trauma within treatment settings.
- It stresses that since our children have been hurt in relationships, supportive nurturing relationships are critical to healing. Therefore, every adult who has contact with a child in treatment has a role in their trauma treatment.

Over the next year, each and every

Maryvale Associate will be introduced to the concepts and ideas behind Trauma Informed Care. Through this training process, we will enhance and improve the way we understand and meet the needs of those we serve and be able to better meet our ultimate goal: to stabilize the child so that she can establish the behavioral foundation to live an independent, safe, and healthy lifestyle.

Trainer, Mary Gratton, Ph.D., LCSW of the Traumatic Stress Institute in session with Maryvale's 55 Associates.

Volunteer Spotlight

"Never doubt that a small group of thoughtful committed volunteers can change the world; indeed, it's the only thing that ever has." – Margaret Mead

Lexi is a star. Really!! Humble and quiet about her celebrity (recent films include Kung Fu Panda 2, Savages starring John Travolta, and TV productions of CSI and The New Normal), Lexi wanted to help other kids by creating a non-profit. With the help of her Mom and Dad, actors Claudia and Tom Jourden, Lexi discovered Maryvale. After a tour and lots of conversation, Lexi knew exactly what she wanted to do – create a welcome basket for each new Maryvale resident upon their arrival. With the help of her school, she was able to make 60 welcome baskets loaded with basic toiletries and some age appropriate fun items. Now when a new child is placed at Maryvale, they have what they need and know others care about them.

Girl Scouts Troop #2401 earned their Silver Award by choosing as a project to renovate the girls' locker room at Maryvale's Pool complex. This lengthy project required a consultation with an interior designer, operational plans and drawings, and several Saturdays of scrubbing, painting and decorating with new shower curtains and storage bins financed by the troop's own fundraising. The results were stunning! Richard Soto discovered Maryvale 2 years ago when coming to Sunday Mass at Maryvale's Chapel with his aunt. After seeing the residents in Mass and learning about Maryvale, he quickly made up his mind to help out. For the past two years, Richard along with his friends, organized an event with food and gift packages for all the girls at Maryvale. Richard was recently recruited and accepted a position on our new Board Resource Leadership Committee.

Colleen Aguilar founded Basketball as a Mission in 2005 to provide underprivileged children in other countries the opportunity to play and interact with coaches and players from all over the United States. Colleen decided to bring her work back home to L.A., and in July, she held a Basketball as a Mission Camp at Maryvale where approximately 30 of our residents participated in the camp. It was a serious week-long program of learning the game, techniques, and practicing hard for a final playoff game. The girls received complete basketball outfits, Nike shoes, and other equipment along with new skills and a real love for the game.

The Los Angeles Kings visited Maryvale along with their mascot, Bailey the Lion, bringing books for the Reading Resource Center. Their visit was in collaboration with the Reading is Fundamental Program coordinated each year by Joni Rudesill, Maryvale's Reading Resource Liaison.

A Glorious Christmas

With Christmas just behind us, we reflect on the generosity of donors and the outpouring of love and affection shown to the girls of Maryvale. The holidays can be a very difficult time of year for the girls at Maryvale as they recall memories of being with their families.

Christmas Angels Robert Gomez, Laurinda Cocchiaro, Amy Barsky and Oscar Jimenez

Every year, Maryvale Associates, donors and community partners go above and beyond to create new memories of love and care for residents. Annual events such as the Maryvale Christmas Angels Party, hosted by Amy Barksky, and a Christmas Party held at the Riviera Country Club sponsored by the Los Angeles Orphanage Guild

Juniors, kept the girls active and their spirits up during the holiday season. Both parties were complete with Santa and gifts for every girl.

Maryvale Annual Report

Fiscal Year October 1, 2011–September 30, 2012

Our Mission is to help each child achieve fulfillment, dignity, and self-esteem in an environment of stability, love, and respect.

Dear Friends,

Kate, a young nine-year-old, was referred to our Family Resource Center in Duarte this past year by her pediatrician. At the time, her mother reported that Kate was having difficulty sleeping at night with nightmares, refusing to attend school, and generally misbehaving. As our staff began working with the family, it quickly became apparent that Kate's mother was struggling with her own serious mental health needs. It was also discovered that Kate and her brother had not been enrolled in school for over a year and were having no contact with any of their family or friends. Through the compassionate service and advocacy of our staff, Kate's mother eventually received the help she needed while Kate and her brother moved to a relative's home and returned to school. Kate is doing well and enjoying school while she and her brother continue to meet with a therapist at the Family Resource Center.

Every day in our community mental health, residential, transitional housing and early education programs we meet children and families in need. Our dedicated staff responds based on our Mission to help each child achieve fulfillment, dignity and self-esteem in an environment of stability, love and respect always rooted in our Core Values of Respect, Compassionate Service, Simplicity, Advocacy for the Poor, and Inventiveness to Infinity.

This past year, we have continued to focus on our strategic planning priorities:

- Create a culture consistent with our Mission and Core Values
- · Align programs with community need
- Be a provider of choice (quality services)
- Increase Maryvale's visibility and awareness in the community
- Expand and strengthen sources of funding

During this coming year we will continue our efforts to introduce a trauma-informed philosophy of care across the agency. We will also be working toward national accreditation through the Council on Accreditation (COA). Both of these efforts will help Maryvale respond more effectively to the needs of the children and families entrusted to our care.

As we continue to follow the example of St. Vincent de Paul, we will seek to serve those most in need and to care for our Associates who touch the lives of Kate and all those we serve on a daily basis.

I am most grateful for all of our Associates, volunteers, and contributors who give of themselves in countless ways to make the healing work of Maryvale possible!

Blessings,
