LADY FIONA CARNARVON is the eighth Countess of Carnarvon and lives at Highclere Castle, the real life setting for Masterpiece's Downton Abbey. She was inspired to share the true story of Highclere Castle's conversion to a hospital during WWI. From diaries, letters and photos straight out of the Castle archives, she produced her NYT #1 bestselling book Lady Almina and the Real Downton Abbey. Her stories are highly entertaining and told as only English aristocracy can – covering Royal visits, the leading ladies of Highclere, the 200+ rooms at the Castle and the 1,300 years of colourful history. The shows writer Julian Fellowes is a long-time friend of the Carnarvon's who used their home and the history of upstairs and downstairs characters as inspiration. The popularity of the show has caused the number of visitors to Highclere to skyrocket, with visitors coming from all over the world.

Lady Carnarvon is the leading speaker on Highclere Castle, art and antiques, garden and landscape and Georgian and Victorian times and of course the story of the 5th Earl and Howard Carters amazing discovery of the tomb of Tutankhamun – we hope you will consider her for your next event. From corporations to universities to leading associations, WWSG has hundreds of speakers for any price range, audience, venue or type of location. We simplify the process for selecting your speaker to help create the experience of a lifetime.
