

Accelerate Your Career

LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT FORUM

Become More Influential in Your Organization

During the Leadership Development Forum you will:

- Gain greater confidence
- Learn and practice skills you need to advance your career
- Get focused and energized

I am much more self-aware. Participating in the Leadership Development Forum helped me approach things in a new and different way. I now use tools like DiSC to effectively connect and communicate with others.

Imagine focusing on your own professional development with a trainer/coach dedicated to your success.

Now envision learning and implementing three essential things about yourself that will change the way you work, influence, lead and enjoy business relationships—all within a four-month period, with a handful of like-minded and committed professionals.

Join the Leadership Development Forum.

Program outcomes:

- Articulate your professional vision—what's next
- Enhance your executive presence and power
- Use feedback effectively—seek, receive, give—to grow as a leader
- Strengthen work relationships and build allies
- Deepen self understanding—positively impacting communication and interactions
- Create a specific action plan (individual development plan) that delivers measurable improved results

Program components:

- Teleclasses are small (6 to 8 leaders) to allow for interaction
- Classes meet once a month with activities in-between to retain and practice learnings
- Program is four months long
- Core curriculum is customized for your specific need
- Go forward strategy: individual development plan is created by each participant and shared with his/her manager
- After each class: summarized notes, worksheets to practice, exercises to apply learned skills

Are you dedicated to your own professional success?

Chances are you're not getting the targeted attention you need to craft your next steps. Prioritize your professional success by investing in the Leadership Development Forum and gain new skills and perspectives in a safe and encouraging environment.

Price per participant is $1,500 with a six person minimum.
