Chicago, IL, November 3, 2011 – PositiveVision, a business software reseller specializing in Sage PFW, Sage ERP Accpac, Sage CRM, among other products, announces the expansion of their business through their partnership with ERP Partners, LLC.

Adding to PositiveVision's core expertise in ERP and manufacturing solutions, joining ERP Partners will enhance their current product portfolio and provide distribution and wholesale expertise along with additional training and support services. "We are excited about our partnership with ERP Partners," comments Bob Baran, President of PositiveVision. "This will allow us to tap into even more resources which will benefit our clients with a broader depth of service and support."

ERP Partners, LLC is a group of Value Added Resellers (VAR's) specializing in Sage and Microsoft software. Their goal is to enable Partnering VAR(s) to grow their business by becoming part of a larger entity, while maintaining their own company identity and client base. As a result, the Partners are better equipped to provide a wide range of expertise and products to satisfy their clients' needs.
