WHAT IS THE STUDENT AND EXCHANGE VISITOR INFORMATION SYSTEM (SEVIS)?

SEVIS came online in 2003 to track and monitor the status and activities of nonimmigrant students and exchange visitors who enter the United States. This web-based system collects real-time information on nonimmigrant students, exchange visitors, approved schools, and program sponsors. SEVIS also retains information on Exchange Visitor Program sponsors and visitors that are approved by the Department of State (DoS).

WHAT IS SEVIS BY THE NUMBERS?

SEVIS by the Numbers is a statistical summary report produced using data compiled from SEVIS. This report provides a snap-shot of relevant and useful information and is used as a resource by a variety of SEVP stakeholders and partner agencies.

This quarterly review is based on information retrieved on January 15, 2014. As SEVIS is a real-time database, exact numbers within this review were accurate as of the date retrieved.

DEFINITIONS

- Student and Exchange Visitor Program (SEVP) – acts as a bridge for government organizations that have an interest in information on nonimmigrants whose primary reason for coming to the United States is to be students. SEVP manages schools, nonimmigrant students in the F and M visa classifications and their dependents.
- F-1 nonimmigrant students – nonimmigrant students coming to the United States to pursue a full course of academic study in SEVP-certified schools.
- M-1 nonimmigrant students – nonimmigrant nationals pursuing a full course of study at an SEVP-certified vocational or other recognized nonacademic institution (other than in language training programs) in the United States.
- J-1 exchange visitors – nonimmigrants approved to participate in work-and study-based exchange visitor programs.

GENERAL OVERVIEW

Since the program's inception, the total volume of data in SEVIS continues to grow. However, since October 2013, the total number of SEVIS records for active nonimmigrant students, exchange visitors, and their dependents has decreased 2.4%, from 1,347,593 to 1,315,528.
