

The Precious Metal Fee Schedule is subject to the terms of The Metals Trust (“the Trust”) which has been established with The Hong Kong Trust Company Limited (“the Trustee”) by The Entrust Group, Inc (“the Administrator”) on behalf of the Custodian of your IRA Plan. You, as the IRA Owner, can instruct GoldMoney to buy and sell precious metal held by the Trust in accordance with the terms of delegation from the Trustee and the Administrator.

Precious metal traded and stored by GoldMoney conforms with the London Good Delivery standards established by The London Bullion Market Association for gold and silver and The London Platinum and Palladium Market for platinum and palladium. More information is available at: <http://www.goldmoney.com/en-gb/company-overview/help/wiki/london-good-delivery-gold.aspx>. In addition, gold and silver bars stored at VIA MAT Switzerland include newly fabricated bars which are smaller in size than specified in the London Good Delivery standards but which are produced by a refiner on the LBMA Good Delivery List.

Transaction Fee

Current spot prices for trading precious metal are quoted on the GoldMoney website at <http://www.goldmoney.com>. These are based on the current global market for physical metal. Large orders are completed at the London PM Gold, London Silver, London PM Platinum or London PM Palladium fixing price (“the Fix Price”) subsequent to receipt of your trade instruction. Further information about GoldMoney’s trading procedures is available here: <http://www.goldmoney.com/en-gb/company-overview/help/faqs/buying-and-selling.aspx#ID86>

GoldMoney charges a fixed Purchase Fee or Metal Exchange Fee dependent on the total value of each transaction as defined in the table below. The Metal Exchange Fee is applied for exchanges between metals (eg silver to gold) and between vaults (eg gold in the UK to gold in Switzerland). Therefore, a conversion of silver to gold or gold in the UK to gold in Switzerland would be applied using the rates stated for the Gold Metal Exchange Fee.

Total Value of Purchase or Metal Exchange	Purchase Fee %				Metal Exchange Fee %
	Gold	Silver	Platinum	Palladium	Gold	Silver	Platinum	Palladium
USD1 to USD9,999	2.49	3.99	4.39	5.27	0.75	1.25	1.90	2.10

USD1,000,000 and over	0.98	1.99	2.19	2.63

GoldMoney does not normally charge any fees for executing sell orders but may do so during extreme market conditions. If a Sell Fee is to be charged, you will be given details of the amount of the fee before you commit to the sale thus giving you the choice whether or not to proceed.

Storage Fee

You can choose whether the Storage Fee is deducted on a pro-rata monthly basis from the holding of precious metal or from the USD balance held by your IRA within the Trust.
