8 Disclosure

Annual Recordkeeping Fees: Annual recordkeeping fees are charged for all or any portion of each year during which the account is in existence. If you terminate your account during a year, you will still owe the annual fee for that entire year. These fees are charged on the basis of the year beginning on the date when your account is established, and each anniversary of that date. Annual recordkeeping fees are not pro-rated when an account is closed. Annual Recordkeeping fees apply to beneficiary accounts established upon the death of the original IRA holder.

Accounts Holding Precious Metal: Depository and/or shipping fees associated with accounts holding precious metals will be charged to your account at their actual costs and without markup by Entrust Administration, Inc. ("Entrust" and/or "The Entrust Group").***

Custodial Fee: We receive a fee equal to the income generated by deposit accounts into which your undirected cash, if any, is placed. The custodian of your account is entitled to this fee under Section 8.06 of your IRA Custodial Account Agreement if you have a Traditional or SEP IRA (Section 9.06 if you have a Roth IRA; Section 8.10 if you have a SIMPLE; Section 10.06 if you have a ESA; Section 11.06 if you have a HSA), and has assigned this fee to us for services relating to the investment of undirected cash.

Termination Fee: If you terminate your account, you agree to pay a termination fee of $250, plus any applicable transaction fees for each asset that is sold. A transfer of assets from your account to a third party is considered a termination for the purposes of the imposition of this fee. A lump sum distribution of all account assets, including cash, is considered a termination for the purposes of the imposition of this fee. Account conversions, such as Traditional to Roth, as well as single account closures where one or more additional accounts remain open with Entrust, will not be charged a termination fee. Beneficiary accounts established upon the death of the original IRA holder will not be charged a termination fee as a result of the closure of the deceased's account, but will be charged a termination fee upon the closure of their beneficiary account. Required Minimum Distributions and distributions due to disability or death are not considered terminations and are not subject to the termination fee.

Collection of Fees and Charges: All fees and charges, as described above, are charged in advance or in connection with the applicable services and events and are at no time refundable. We generally bill and collect recordkeeping fees quarterly, based on your account establishment date. These fees are normally withdrawn from your undirected cash funds balance approximately 20 days after the invoice date, unless they have been actually paid directly by you.

Late Payment Fee: Fees for late payments may be applied at the rate of the lesser of 1.5% per month (18% annum) or the maximum allowable under applicable law. If there is insufficient undirected cash in your account, we may, solely at our discretion, liquidate other assets to pay for such fees and charges, after giving you 30 days' notice of our intention to do so.

Entrust shall have no liability for any adverse tax or other financial consequences as a result of applying account cash and liquidating other account assets to cover fees and charges. Entrust reserves the right to sell any past due receivables to a collection and credit reporting agency.

In accordance with your Account Application, this Fee Schedule is part of your Account Agreement and must accompany your Application.

*** I agree that Entrust is not and cannot be held responsible for the actions or inactions of these depositories and I hereby release and hold harmless The Entrust Group from any damages that I may incur with respect to my choice of depository.
